

Jordan & Anna

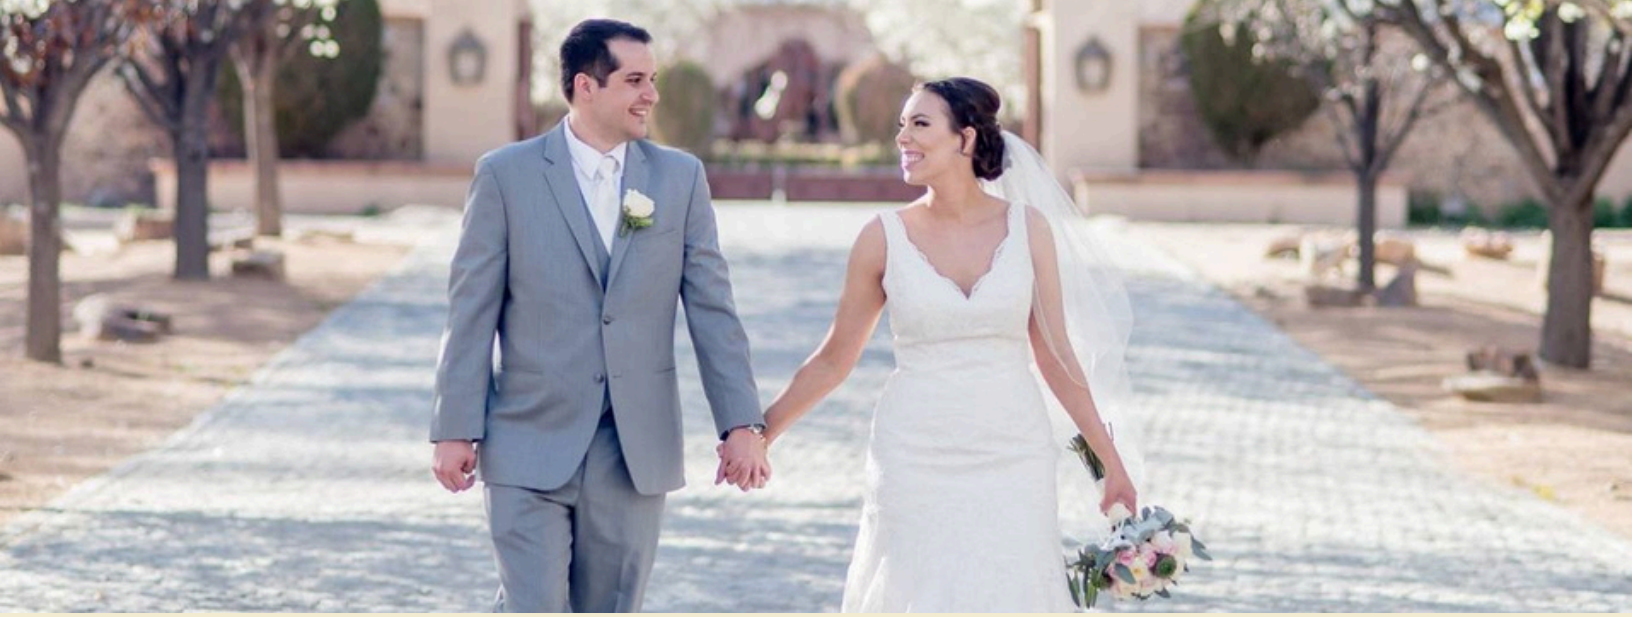
hello! We're Jordan & Anna

Thank you so much for taking the time to learn about our family. We can only imagine the many emotions and decisions you may be carrying during this season, and we hope these pages give you a sense of who we are, the love we have to share, and the deep respect we have for you and your story.

Adoption has always held a special place in our hearts. Even while we were dating, we talked often about the family we hoped to build and knew that adoption would one day be part of our story. After walking through several years of infertility, we felt God gently leading us toward the path He had placed on our hearts from the very beginning. In 2022, we were incredibly blessed to adopt our daughter, and becoming parents through adoption has been one of the greatest gifts of our lives. Our home is filled with so much joy, laughter, love, and gratitude, and our experience has given us an even deeper admiration for the strength and love of birth mothers.

One of the things we value most about adoption is the connection and love it creates. We believe every adoption story is unique, and we are committed to building a relationship rooted in honesty, care, and mutual respect. We would be honored to know you, hear your story, and build a relationship rooted in honesty, care, and shared love for your child.

Thank you again for considering us and allowing us to share a small glimpse into our lives. We are praying for peace, comfort, and guidance for you throughout this journey.



Our Story

Our story began online—two people looking for something real and finding exactly that. After two years of dating, we were married in 2017, and now, over ten years together, we can't imagine life without each other and celebrate God bringing us together. Our relationship is built on laughter, mutual respect, and a steady partnership founded in Christ that has seen us through life's highs and lows.

As a military family, we've embraced adventure and flexibility, finding joy in wherever life leads us, which has taken us to some incredible places. Each move has brought new experiences, friends, and memories. We've learned to see every change as an opportunity to explore and grow. We look forward to experiencing all of life's adventures with our children and feel incredibly grateful for the many blessings in our lives.

MEET Anna

Anna has one of the kindest, most nurturing hearts I've ever known. Before becoming a stay-at-home mom, she worked as a nurse, and caring for others has always come naturally to her. She's compassionate, patient, and has a true gift for making everyone feel loved and supported.

Anna brings so much joy to our family. She loves to cook and bake, explore new places, and is always up for an adventure. She's thoughtful in everything she does and finds happiness in the little moments—family walks, bedtime stories, and laughter around the table. Watching her as a mom is amazing. She's gentle, creative, and devoted, and I know she will pour that same love and warmth into any child who joins our family.

MEET Jordan

He is one of the kindest, most passionate people I know. As a military musician, he serves our country with pride and brings the gift of music wherever he goes. There's always a melody playing in our home—whether it's Jordan practicing, sharing his favorite songs, or arranging new tunes.

Jordan has a calm, steady presence, and provides so well for our family. He has a playful side too—he loves working on his model trains and sharing that hobby with our daughter. We spend a lot of time cooking together and laughing in the kitchen, which is one of my favorite parts of our day.

Watching Jordan as a dad has been one of the greatest joys of my life. He has such a sweet, gentle relationship with our daughter—she absolutely adores him. I know that any child who joins our family will be deeply loved, supported, and cherished by him.

MEET Ella

Ella joined our family through adoption at birth, and she has filled our lives with more joy and laughter than we ever could have imagined. Now three years old, she is spunky, sweet, and always on the go! Ella has a big personality in a tiny package—she is curious, playful, and full of energy.

She's happiest when she's on the move, running, dancing, or playing outside, and she never turns down a good story or cuddle at the end of the day.

We deeply value the relationship we have with Ella's birth family and are grateful for the connection we share through regular emails, photos, and updates.

Ella's bright spirit and loving heart bring so much happiness to our home. We know she will be the most caring, enthusiastic, and fun big sister when the time comes!

Our Families

Family has always been at the center of our lives. As a military family, we may live far from our relatives, but we stay closely connected through frequent phone calls, video chats, and visits once or twice each year. No matter the distance, we have always felt surrounded by love and support.

Anna grew up in a close and loving family. Though she lost her mom when she was twelve, she is grateful to have known the love of both her mom and stepmom, who helped shape her into the caring and resilient person she is today. She shares a special bond with her sister and is very close with her younger brothers, who love being uncles and bring so much fun and laughter to family time.

Jordan was raised in a home full of love, kindness, and encouragement. His parents have been married for over 45 years and taught him the importance of family, hard work, and togetherness. Alongside his sister, he grew up making wonderful memories through family movie nights, holiday traditions, and time spent together.

Even though we do not live near family, they remain a very important part of our lives and are always supportive and involved. We treasure every visit, every phone call, and every moment spent together, and we are grateful for the loving village surrounding our family.

Our Home & Neighborhood

Home for us is wherever we are together. We currently live on a military base at Jordan's current duty station, just a short 10 minute walk from the beach. We love spending time together exploring our community—whether that's visiting local playgrounds and libraries, enjoying trips to the aquarium, or attending activities at our church, where Ella especially loves music and movement class.

As a family, we cherish the simple traditions that bring us together. We enjoy weekly pizza nights using our outdoor pizza oven, a tradition we picked up while living in Italy, along with cooking and baking together, taking family walks, and exploring new places. Our home is filled with laughter, music, love, and connection, and we look forward to sharing those everyday moments with another child.

Thank you

Thank you again for taking the time to get to know our family and for considering us as part of your journey. We know this season may hold many unknowns, and we are praying that you feel peace, strength, and comfort each step of the way. Our faith is a central part of our family, and one of the verses that has carried us through many seasons is Philippians 4:6–7 — a reminder that God's peace can guard our hearts and minds even in uncertain times.

"DO NOT BE ANXIOUS ABOUT ANYTHING, BUT IN EVERYTHING BY PRAYER AND SUPPLICATION WITH THANKSGIVING LET YOUR REQUESTS BE MADE KNOWN TO GOD. AND THE PEACE OF GOD, WHICH SURPASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING, WILL GUARD YOUR HEARTS AND YOUR MINDS IN CHRIST JESUS." PHILIPPIANS 4:6-7

We truly believe every child is deeply loved by God and created with purpose, and we are committed to raising our children in a home filled with grace, compassion, faith, and unconditional love. Whether or not our paths ultimately join together, we hope you feel seen, valued, and cared for as you navigate this season.

WITH LOVE,

Jordan & Anna
