Adoption Cost & Fee Breakdown

Cost - More Details

Please read all information regarding fees. The cost is an estimate.

THIS WILL BE A NON-CALIFORNIA FINALIZATION

Birth mother is located in Texas and due to the requirements for payment of living expenses in that state, an agency must be used. Our office will not handle the finalization even for adoptive parents located in California.

Estimated cost of the adoption as a NON California finalization is $28,000. This includes an advertising service fee, limited case management fee, and anticipated birth mother expenses.

PLEASE NOTE: For an out of state finalization, our office will not be involved in managing the case or handling the legal portion of the case. You will need to finalize in either your home state or state where mother resides. You will be required to obtain an attorney and/or agency in addition to any third-party providers as needed under the law of the state where finalization will occur.

We are unable to quote the cost for those items in another state. We are also unable to say what each state allows for payment of birth mother living expenses. You will need to add the cost of any fees, costs and expenses in either your state or birth mother's state to the estimated cost we provide.

Please be realistic in regards to your ability to pay the total estimated cost of the adoption by the time the expectant mother delivers her child.
