

Kevin and Sarah

Considering an adoption plan for your child is a truly courageous act. We admire the strength and selfless love that brought you to this point. You and your child are in our prayers.

We are not able to have our own biological children, but we have room in our hearts and in our home for a child.

Our home is filled with love, laughter, open communication, and faith. It will be a place where adoption is celebrated and birth families are honored. We hope this includes contact with our child's birth family.

This is just a small view into our lives. We hope to someday share it all with our child.

-Kevin and Sarah

Sarah

Sarah is a small-town gal who teaches in a rural community. On her drive to school she gets a daily dose of the beautiful North Dakota scenery. She likes the teaching lifestyle because it allows her to be home in the summer and on holidays. Sarah likes to do crafts and projects around the house. Kevin loves it when she sneaks off to the kitchen and unexpectedly bakes something sweet. Sarah will be a mom who makes the best treats.

Hobbies to share with our child:

- Reading
- Music
- Baking
- Quilting
- Planting Flowers
- Crocheting

Fun Fact: Sarah has been teaching piano lessons for 13 years.

Kevin

In high school Kevin was voted as “coolest dude” and “first to go bald.” Sarah thinks those are both accurate. He now teaches and coaches at the high school he attended. Sarah can often be found in the stands during Kevin’s football games. She loves watching Kevin interact with his students and athletes. He captures their attention with his fun sense of humor and interesting stories. Kevin will be a dad who tells the best bedtime stories.

We met in 2009 through mutual friends. We were both attending the same university. The first time we had our picture taken together was shortly after we started dating in the spring of 2010. →

We were out for a walk on a wet spring evening. We still enjoy going for walks together.

We got engaged in March of 2013.

We got married on October 19, 2013 at the Catholic church we attend every weekend.

Sarah's Family

Sarah's parents have been married for over 35 years. They live 30 miles away and we see them often on the weekends. They are ready to be the best grandparents.

Sarah has one sister named Mariah. She is married to Joshua. They will teach their niece or nephew how to play board games and do arts and crafts.

Kevin's Family

Kevin has two brothers. His older brother, Chris, lives in the same town as us. His younger brother, Scott, is married to Lexi and they have a daughter named Paige.

Kevin's dad lives in Illinois. We keep in touch and meet up when we are able.

Kevin's mom lives in the same town as us. She is looking forward to having a grandchild live nearby since Paige lives in Ohio.

Spending time with family

We love spending time with our immediate family. Our extended family is also important to us. We get together with our aunts, uncles, and cousins for special occasions and just for the fun of it!

Traditions

Every year Sarah makes Kevin an ice cream cake for his birthday.

We grow four o'clocks in our garden every summer. We harvest the seeds in the fall so we can plant them in the spring.

Since we are both teachers, we have time to take a vacation every summer. We have a refrigerator magnet from every trip.

Holidays and birthdays are spent with family.

Sarah bakes a pecan pie every Thanksgiving.

We have been eating lasagna on Christmas Eve for as long as anyone can remember. We get together the day before to make the lasagna and garlic toast. Even the little ones help!

Friends

Our friends are very supportive of our decision to adopt. Most of our friends have children, so our child will have plenty of kids to play with.

One of our friends recently started the adoption process so we are looking forward to our children having that connection.

Home & Community

We have lived in our house for six years. The main floor has a living room, kitchen, bathroom, and two bedrooms. The basement has a laundry room, piano room, bedroom, and storage.

Outside we have a front yard, patio, clothesline, and garden. On nice summer days we like to eat supper on the patio. The clothesline is mainly used for all of Kevin's birdfeeders. We enjoy watching the birds from our kitchen. In our garden we grow vegetables, grapes, and flowers.

Our community has many parks and activities. We live one mile from the town dike where we go fishing and turtle watching.

We live two miles from the community center where we go to exercise, swim, and walk on the track during the winter months.

Thank you for looking at our profile. We appreciate the steps you are taking for your child's future. If you think we could be a part of that future, we would love to meet you.
