

A little about us....

- Joanna grew up as a military kid.
- Matt is from Vegas.
- We've been married for 10 years.
- Our son was adopted at birth (open adoption - it's been amazing!)
- Joanna is 2nd Grade teacher.
- Matt is a musician (songwriting, trumpet, guitar, piano) and business owner.
- We do a YouTube channel together: Hopscotch Educational Songs
- We are members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Christians).
- We love and respect friends of all beliefs and backgrounds.
- We love our LGBTQIA+ friends.
- We support the Black Lives Matter movement. We are working to educate ourselves and want to be great parents to any child who comes to our home.

We are the Pace Family more....

- Emerson (our son) is 4 years old and has the best imagination around. He loves people of all ages and pretend play.
- He can't wait to be a big brother!
- We live in a 3 bedroom home at the foot of the mountains (see pictures above).
- Some of our favorite TV shows include Parks & Rec, Brooklyn 99, The Good Place, Schitt's Creek.
- We love reading (from Harry Potter to organizational books).
- Matt and Emerson love movie nights, Joanna does sometimes as well - depending on the movie.
- We love playing games, kicking a soccer ball around, musicals, hiking, traveling, going on walks, and singing together.
- We both come from big, supportive families (Joanna is 3rd of 7 kids, Matt is 3rd of 6).
- People and friends and relationships are very important to us. We LOVE spending time with friends and family.
