

Dawn

Snowflakes on whiskers, Rain drops on petals.....

hello

My name is Dawn and I am a single woman living in South Carolina, who cannot wait to be a mother! I never met the perfect man to marry and when I was 30 I was told I that I would never be able to have biological children.

Thank you for considering me as an adoptive parent for your child. If you choose me, I'm looking forward to meeting you and to share in your adoption journey. Being an adopted child myself, I know what a gift this is and the sacrifice you are making. I promise to love and cherish your precious child as I have been cherished myself. Your child will grow in a loving, nurturing, adventurous and Christian environment. He or she will be surrounded by loving and caring individuals, including my father, who lives with me.

My Story

I am blessed to have three birthdays - biological birthday in November, adoption birthday in January, and my baptism day in February. Ten years before I was born, my parents had a baby girl born with Spina Bifida. She lived for three months. Unfortunately, my mother was not able to have another baby. Then ten years later, mother and daddy adopted me at 3 months of age. I have always known I was adopted.

My family is small. I am an only child, and so was my mother. My father has 2 brothers, and I have cousins. As a military family, we did not celebrate holidays with family, but with our military family. My mother has passed away, but I am blessed to have my father here and an amazing community of friends that are much more like family!

My Parents, Bobbie and Joel

My dad would sing me to sleep singing: "My adopted daughter made to order." I have always described myself as the "youngest and only child."

My Faith and Church community are a strong part of who I am. I enjoy teaching Sunday School to grades 1-3.

LOVE begins at HOME

My home is a one story, 3-bedroom, 2 bath home. It sits on a large lot with a large back yard. We have roses, camellias, and many bulbs in the yard. It looks beautiful in the spring, and the roses and camellias even bloom in the winter months. The neighborhood is very child-friendly. You can always see families strolling, children riding their bikes, and folks out walking their dogs.

We live in a good school district and have a private school within walking distance.

There is a park in the neighborhood with playground equipment and tennis courts.

Here is a picture of the nursery that I am setting up for the baby.

LAUGH, SMILE!

The back yard is fenced in and large enough for a swing set and room for kiddie pool in the summer. Plenty of space to run, play, and explore.

MY PROMISE TO YOU:

To love and cherish your child unconditionally.

To provide for your child in all things physical and spiritual.

To ensure your child is well educated.

To tell them about you and your love.

To provide a happy and fun-filled life and to encourage them to be true to themselves and follow their dreams.

Thank you for considering me as an adoptive parent for your child. I hope we can connect and you can understand the overwhelming love I have to give a child. I look forward to meeting you and getting to know each other better.

Love,

Dawn
