

Kash & Daniel

Hopeful Adoptive Parents

About Us

Daniel was born and raised in sunny California, and Kash is from the beautiful state of Wyoming. We both come from loving, supportive families who encourage us to always pursue the things we want in life. We have a passion for travel and exploring, cooking, gardening, nature, the arts, and languages. Kash speaks Italian, and Daniel is very proud of his Hispanic, Spanish-speaking heritage.

Kash works in finance for a real estate company, and Daniel works as a banker. After several years spent living in Europe, Kash relocated to California to be close to his grandparents, niece, and nephews. Daniel was one of the first people Kash met upon arriving, and we immediately knew we had a future together. We bonded over our mutual interests, especially our desire to be fathers through adoption.

Our Home & Puppy

We live in one of the most desirable suburbs of the city in an open-concept home that is perfect for a growing family. We have a large, fenced yard where we have an extensive garden of fresh vegetables we often use while cooking. Our yard would be a perfect place for a child to run and play with our sweet and energetic dog, Gnocchi. He is four years old and loves kids. We live in a family-friendly community with many local parks, trails, and opportunities for neighborhood kids. There is even a distinguished elementary school only blocks away. Our nieces and nephews live just down the street and are excited to go to the local amusement park with their new cousin.

What Led Us To Adoption

We have always wanted to be parents and have always known adoption was the right choice for us. Even before we met, we both knew we wanted to start a family through adoption. We both have family members who were adopted, and it is something that was always discussed in a positive and special way. Every decision we have made together, including purchasing our home and searching for a family-friendly community, has been to create the best possible life for a future child. We are so excited for the opportunity to bring a child into our home and to love him or her unconditionally!

Our Family & Traditions

Kash's grandparents, brother, sister-in-law, and three adorable nieces and nephews live just down the street from us here in California. Whether attending a baseball game or swimming in their pool, we are often spending quality time together as a whole family. Kash's parents live in a beautiful cabin in the Rocky Mountains, and each year we visit them for a family reunion so everyone can catch up, play games, and sing and play the guitar around the fire. We are also very close with Kash's other brother and his fiancée, who live in Minnesota.

Daniel's entire family lives in the same town where he grew up, which is just a short drive away! We love spending time with his nephews and niece, whether playing in the yard or watching one of their t-ball games. Daniel comes from a Hispanic family that loves to cook delicious, traditional Mexican food together. Daniel's grandparents are so excited to teach their future great-grandchild how to make secret family recipes!

Our family has supported us from the beginning and are excited for our family to grow!

Dear Expectant Mother

We want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for considering us as parents for your baby and taking the time to read our profile. We cannot begin to imagine what emotions you must be feeling as you make this courageous and selfless decision. By making this sacrifice, you are giving us the opportunity to build a family of our own, fulfilling a lifelong dream for both of us and our families. For this reason, you really are a miracle for us.

Our goal is to provide the best opportunities for your child, from being raised in a loving and accepting home to having access to the best education. From our international friends and close-knit families, we can guarantee a life full of diverse experiences, positive life lessons, and no shortage of unconditional love.

Kash is especially excited to teach your child how to sing, play the piano, and cook delicious recipes using ingredients from our own garden. Daniel cannot wait to teach him or her all about animals and plants and to encourage their own artistic expression. Our philosophy as parents is to provide your child with all of the tools necessary to lead a happy, confident, and successful life without ever forgetting their roots.

As you make this difficult decision, we want to offer our full support. We would love to do whatever it takes to help you make a decision that is right for you and your child. We respect you, we are committed to you, and we cannot wait to meet you.

With love, Kash & Daniel
