

Dear Expectant Mother,

You are so brave and we have so much respect for you to even consider placing your baby with another family. We are Adam and Jevanna and we have such hopes and dreams of having a big, diverse family. It has been a struggle to carry babies through the womb. We endured several losses from 2015-2018. Then, in 2019 we became parents, through adoption, to our daughter Rhema. We also became parents to our bio son, Ezra. It was a miracle year and we are forever grateful. We have a good relationship with Rhema's birth mom and we can't wait to grow our family through adoption again.

Here is a little bit about us...Our journey began when our paths crossed at church in 2012. We became good friends before we started dating. We dated a little over a year, got engaged and then married in November of 2014. We live in the Dallas area and Adam is self-employed and works from home. Jevanna is a part time Women's Pastor at our church. She is able to stay home majority of the week and loves being with the kids. On the weekends, we enjoy playing together, going to the park, swimming, laughing, hanging out with family and friends, playing games, watching movies and attending church. We also love to travel. You will either find us at the beach or at Disney World. We go to Disney every other year with Jevanna's extended family, party of 22.

We love our little family and we know our family is not complete yet. Over the last six years, we have endured 10 losses through the womb and one failed adoption. It has been a journey but we know God has a wonderful plan. Since the beginning of our relationship, we knew adoption was important to us. We fully believe through the spirit of adoption, God calls us sons and daughters and adoption is his heart.

We would love to meet you, hear your story and share more about us. We are open to whatever type of communication you are comfortable with, if you choose us. We pray that God the source of hope will fill you completely as you trust him and make the most peaceful, hard decision with him.

We bless you,
Adam and Jevanna

Dating Life

We went swing dancing for our first date! We had lots of adventures like a hot air balloon festival, a boat ride, snow cone dates, coke dates, holidays and more!

Engagement

On September 27, 2014, I asked her to be my wife. Jevanna thought we were going to just meet my dad in San Antonio for the first time. Little did she know, I would propose on the River Walk.

Our Wedding Day!

We got married in our friend's back yard. A cold snap came through that weekend. It was 38 degrees! An unforgettable, magical night.

We enjoy being together and having fun! Pictured here are a wedding date, Dallas Reunion Tower, dressing up in costumes, a corn maize adventure, putting on face masks, birthday celebrations and more!

Children: Rhema, born February 19, 2019, adopted. Rhema is a people person and is full of hope and laughter. She loves talking, taking care of bubba and playing with her dolls.

Ezra, born November 3, 2019, biological. Ezra is chill, full of giggles and loves animals. He adores his big sissy and loves to play with his toy figures.

Interests & Hobbies: We enjoy spending time with family and friends. We also love going for walks as a family. We truly enjoy being together. Adam enjoys reading and drinking coffee. Jevanna enjoys encouraging women. We both enjoy just being with our kids.

Home: We have a four bedroom home in a neighborhood with a community pool, pond and playground nearby.

Why are you interested in building your family through adoption: We have always wanted to have children through adoption. Now that we have one adopted daughter, we want her to feel connected to another sibling through adoption. We desire a big, diverse family full of different cultures.

Openness with Adoption: We would love to have an open adoption and will set up a plan you are comfortable with.

Childcare plans: Jevanna is a part time women's pastor, she goes into the office one day a week. A babysitter from church watches the kids on that day. She is a stay at home mom the other days of the week.
