

CHUCK & LAURA

Hi there!

We have always dreamt about being parents and after years of infertility, we believe that God has out of the ordinary plans for us-we like to think of them as extraordinary. We are honored to be building our family through adoption. We are taking each step in faith, knowing that God loves and cares for you.

Although this season is filled with so much emotion for us: joy, excitement, and even apprehension, we know you are facing a challenging season. We are encouraged by your bravery and we thank you for allowing us to walk alongside you through this part of your journey.

A FEW OF OUR FAVORITE THINGS

- Travelling
- Serving others around the world
- Spending time with friends & family.
- Bootcamp workouts
- The outdoors

Chuck and I met in 2014 chaperoning a high school trip to Spain. We taught at the same school for years before that, but never paid much attention to each other. He taught Science and I taught Spanish; our paths just really did not cross. We left the US as basic strangers, but came back as incredible friends. Once we returned, Chuck tricked me into a first date! I thought we were just hanging out, but he had other plans in mind! Three years later, he asked me to marry him and the rest is history. We travel together, serve together, and face life together. It has been a true blessing being married to my best friend and I could not imagine going through life's ups and downs without him. In the beginning of 2020, we were told that there would be a very low chance of us having biological children. We knew we had so much love to give a child, so we began to pray and seek God's will for our family. It became clear to us that this is the path that we are to take. We are honored for the opportunity to be parents, nervous about the unknowns, and excited about all of it! It will bring us great joy to provide a loving and caring home for a child, surrounded by our community of incredible friends and family.

Laura

A NOTE FROM CHUCK

Laura is the most kindhearted person I have ever known.

When we first met, she opened my eyes to serving in our local community. I can still remember the first time we served at a local food bank and how natural it was for her.

When our church asked for volunteers for an international mission trip Laura jumped at the opportunity. She was so moved by the experience she began leading the teams to serve internationally and before long the church asked her to come on staff. For the past three years she has been serving communities all around the world. Through these service opportunities and the interactions with the children of our family and friends, I know Laura has a special heart for children. I cannot wait to experience becoming a parent with Laura.

ALL ABOUT

Chuck

A NOTE FROM LAURA

Chuck is patient and kind. He adds so much strength and endless positivity to our home. He is a true adventurer at heart; he loves to be active and is often on the go whether he's heading to his men's church group, spending time outdoors, doing a diy project around the house, or running errands for our household. Chuck has been a teacher and a wrestling coach for the past 17 years and loves the opportunity to work with young adults to help them develop and grow into their fullest potential. I am incredibly proud of the man I married and cannot wait to share this new chapter in our lives with him.

OUR Family

We both have fairly small families, each from different parts of the country. Laura's family lives out of state and my family lives about forty five minutes away from us, so it is often Laura and I along with our two eleven year old "puppies" that hold down the fort in our city. My dad is one of my best friends, so we see each other the most. We go on fishing trips together, we hunt together, and we share the love of coaching together. Most of the rest of our family gets together for special occasions and holidays. Laura's mom says she would come visit a whole lot more often if she had grandchildren! Both of our families are very excited at the thought of adding a child to our family. It would be an incredible blessing to us, as well as them, to share in the joys of raising a family.

ANOTHER BLESSING TO LOVE!

OUR Friends

Since our families do not live close by, our friends are like family to us. While Laura grew up out of state and I grew up in a different city, we have both lived in the same community now for the last ten years. Throughout this time, we have developed strong friendships through work, church, and the workout groups we are involved in. We are also both engaged in community groups at church where we have found life-long friendships as well. We have experienced the incredible blessing of being surrounded by exceptional people and we are grateful for the support, the encouragement, the growth, and the laughter that these friends bring to our lives.

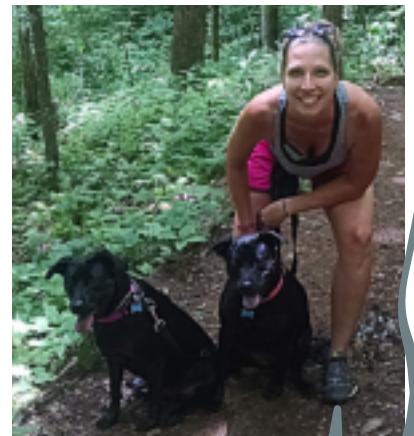

OUR Home

We currently live in a condominium in the suburbs. We love where we live because it is quiet, safe, and walkable. There are so many nearby stores, restaurants, and parks within five miles of our home and we both work only two miles from home! We also have amazing neighbors. One of our closest neighbors serves at our church and drops off home-made cookies at our doorstep every now and then! We look forward to growing our family and continuing to host friends and family over for dinners and game nights at our home.
