

Nick & Courtney

hello!

Thank you for choosing to read our profile! We want you to know that we have tremendous admiration and respect for your journey. Your thoughtfulness and courage show the immense love you have for your child. We hope our profile gives you a sense of who we are and the life your child would have as a part of our family. We promise to raise your child in a home filled with laughter, and hugs; with a heaping helping of summer pool time, family bike rides, park picnics and most importantly unconditional love!

We firmly believe everything happens for a reason.

After struggling over a number of years with infertility, we knew that God had a different plan for us. We've always wanted to raise a child together from birth and are so excited to have the opportunity to adopt!

A man with a beard and mustache, wearing a black cycling helmet, sunglasses, a black t-shirt, red shorts, and black cycling gloves, stands in a grassy park. He is holding a black road bike with drop handlebars. The background shows a large tree and some distant buildings.

Meet Nick

I am known for being a calm, friendly, funny guy. I have a welcoming spirit and seem to draw others everywhere I go. Projects, projects projects are my passion. I am determined to make our home a beautiful sanctuary, inside and out. So far, we've created a little backyard paradise, along with all the best high-tech security so our little one will stay safe and protected. I also love to fish; and I will make sure our baby becomes an expert at catching drum, red and trout! Did I mention I love to grill?

Nick through Courtney's Eyes

Nick is the “rock” of the family. He has always been in my corner since we’ve been together. He is so encouraging and calm and our protector. I admire and adore how great of a dad he is with the children. He’s very patient with them, takes the time to talk to them whenever they have questions or concerns. He loves to take his son fishing and frequently sets up “Daddy-Daughter” dates with his daughter. He’s such a proactive dad and I know that he will be an amazing father to the new addition to our family.

Meet Courtney

Folks would describe me as bubbly and full of energy. I love to talk about everything. I take great joy in serving others and giving. Christmas is literally my favorite time of year because of this! I love to joke, laugh, dance and sing at the top of my lungs regardless of who's around! I also enjoy trying new foods – Gordon Ramsey is one of my favorite chefs! Traveling and experiencing different cultures is one of my outlets. I've been blessed to have visited many countries all over the world: Thailand, Spain, France, Chile, Singapore, Indonesia, and Greece to name a few! I hope that your baby can be my new traveling buddy!

Courtney through Nick's Eyes

From the moment I introduced Courtney to my children, I knew she would be a wonderful mother. They were immediately drawn to her when they first met. She loves to cook for them, play games and have long talks with them. I can tell how deeply passionate she is about motherhood. She's giving, kind, and so eager to care for children as if they were her own. She also has a host of nieces and nephews that adore her. I am pleased to say that Courtney has created a warm and welcoming home for our family that is filled with laughter and love.

Holidays & Family Traditions

Along with our children Jordan and Nate, whether it's family game night, family bike ride day or family vacation time, we are always spending time together. We both come from large families with a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins of all ages; your baby will fit right in! Every Thanksgiving, we travel to our uncle's home and enjoy a plethora of soul food, music and games! For Christmas we have a more intimate family tradition of putting on our Christmas pajamas and watching "The Grinch" and other fun Christmas movies as well as making cookies. We've taken family trips to the Grand Canyon, the water park, Florida beaches. We look forward to our next family trip with the baby!

Our Beliefs and Values

We believe that Christ Jesus is our Lord and Savior! We wouldn't be where we are today without His blessings! We attend a contemporary Christian church in our local community on Sundays. After service, we always talk about how we can apply the message to our lives in a positive way. We also frequently conduct family meetings where we talk to our children about important issues.

Meet Courtney's Family

Courtney is one of 20 grandchildren from mother's side. She has family all over the country and loves to visit them through the years. She is very close to her sister and nephew who loves his Uncle Nick and Auntie "Coco." He's so excited about meeting his new cousin! She also has 3 younger brothers with wives and is auntie to 13 nieces and nephews! She loves being an auntie and looks forward to introducing the baby to all of the cousins!

Meet Nick's Family

Nick comes from a large family both on his mother and father's side. "Family time is important." That's his motto as he is constantly ensuring the family spends as much time as possible together to maintain the family bond. He has a younger sister who is a great aunt to Jordan and Nate. Nick and his sister have a close relationship; they frequently check in on each other and exchange food recipes. Nick also grew up with two cousins that he calls his brothers. All being married with children; Nick and his cousins are always planning family barbeques and backyard parties with their wives and kids. Nick loves to help plan family fishing trips and reunion events with his aunts, uncles and cousins.

We promise...

to love, nurture, and receive your baby with open arms. We know that God is giving us an opportunity to provide a safe, stable home for your baby. We look forward to instilling all of the values we've been taught and learned from experience throughout our lives. We want to remain open and honest with you as we go through this journey together. Thank you again for considering us. Just know that we honor and respect your courageous decision to provide the best life for your baby!

Courtney & Nick