Hello,

Thank you for taking the time to know us!

We know this is a trying and confusing time for you while you are trying to figure out the best option for you and your baby. We hope that you feel the support and love that you need no matter where you are in your journey.

We are in no position to imagine how hard it might be for you to consider adoption for your child. We admire and respect your decision and we will make every effort to teach them always that you love them.

If you decide to make an adoption plan, we promise you that we will provide you with support, openness and contact with your child. For us, that means a few visits a year, calls, texts, photos and being part of special occasions. We promise to love your child with our hearts and souls. We promise to provide a safe and secure home with the love and care that a child deserves along with all the opportunities in life.

We are open to any gender, race and ethnicity. We are home study approved, background checked and ready to travel anywhere across the US. We are Hindu by religion but we are not very religious. Both of us went to convent and Jewish schools and colleges while growing up. So we are aware of other religions and customs.

We hope you are at peace with your decision and may your journey through your pregnancy be a healthy one.

Thank you

Sri & VJ

About Us

Hi! We are Sri and VJ. We met on an online dating website in 2017, dated for a year, and been married since 2018. After living in multiple states across the US for our schooling, we ended up placing our roots in Salt Lake City (SLC).

We loved hiking the Arches National Park in Moab, Utah, visiting the Taj Mahal, and also seeing the sunrise at the Haleakala National Park in Hawaii. As a family, we enjoy doing some deadlifts and ab workouts (lol trying to get rid of our kangaroo pouch) a few times a week and taking walks around our neighborhood. We cook most of our meals at home with a weekend treat yourself at a restaurant/takeout. We like trying new American, Spanish, Chinese, and Italian recipes along with Indian cuisines of course. And we love watching all the Marvel movies.

We live in a 5 bedroom 3 bathroom house in SLC in a very quite, safe, and friendly neighborhood. We renovated the interior of our house and are now focused on improving the curbside appeal.

We have two brothers, one sister, one niece, and one nephew between the two of us. VJ's parents, brother, and sister in law live in Tennessee while Sri's family reside in India. We have some extended relatives that live in Utah, Minnesota, New Jersey and Illinois.

We are excited to start this new journey in our life and grow our family through adoption. VJ's cousin has adopted two kids over the last decade. We have always wanted to adopt and we know we can love, support, and provide everything that a child may need. We are more than ready. We are here for open communication and the support you may need. We hope to get this opportunity.

Thank you for your time to look over our profile and considering us.

About Sri: Written by VJ

Sri was born in the eastern part of India in a metropolitan city. She first moved to the U.S. about 11 years ago in 2011 for her PhD studies. Apart from her work, she likes to paint, grow plants, clean, and decorate our house. She loves watching true crime documentaries, marvel movies and tv series and follows some funny youtubers. She loves to share funny dog and baby videos. She enjoys holidays (Christmas, Halloween, Thanksgiving, New Year, Diwali) and everything that comes with it. She will be ready with candies and decorations for Halloween. She will cook the whole thanksgiving dinner with my help (lol) and she has to decorate the house for Christmas. Family is a big part of her existence. She will video chat every day with her family without fail. She will send gifts for her nephew and niece every year, send flowers and treats for my family and will celebrate every special occasion in our lives. Sri is always planning to have people over or where our next trip will be. With her caring and loving attitude, I have no doubt she will be an amazing mom.

About VJ: Written by Sri

VJ was born and raised in a small town in Tennessee. Since I have met VJ, he kept on saying he won't live anywhere west of the Mississippi River. Guess what? He went to grad school in Oklahoma. When I moved to Salt Lake City, he had no choice but to come running after me (lol). He is one of the most humble, honest and easy going people I have ever met in my life. He is the perfect balance for me since I am always stressed out about everything. And he is a jokester. When he is not taking care of his patients at the hospital, you can find him watching football (Go Titans and Vols!), basketball or taking a nap. He can literally fall asleep anywhere, no joke. He enjoys his fantasy football, going to the gym and trying new food places. He is loved and relied upon by his patients and his co-workers. He will be a cool dad to our children, no doubt.
