

DEAR EXPECTANT MOM,

Greetings! My name is Camille & that's my 'fur baby' (Coltrane).

I sincerely thank you for considering me as one of your choices! I am so excited to be an adoptive parent, and I will have YOU to thank should I be selected to welcome your child into my family.

I hope this book gives you helpful insight into my life, my personality, and my family/friends. Thank you for taking the time to learn more about me.

oh happy day

"In summary, Camille is a well-rounded, outstanding person living a flourishing life that keeps a beautiful home. I wholeheartedly recommend her for being a parent and believe that a child placed with her would be loved, love her and flourish under her care."

~ Dino S., Camille's Cousin

"I absolutely do not know anything in her character that would prevent her from being an excellent and successful mother. She is upbeat, dependable and optimistic, living a lifestyle that centers on health, family values and love. I unequivocally and wholeheartedly give my complete endorsement to Camille becoming a adoptive parent."

~ Marcia F., Camille's former workmate, turned dear friend

"Our faith-based practice keeps us grounded. I have witnessed [Camille's] interactions with our youth department and how she motivates and inspires young people. Many parents trust their children's well-being with her. She is financially able to provide a wonderful life to a child. Camille is a strong leader and a gentle person who loves to help others. Camille is a kind and reliable person that people can always count on to be there when they need her to lend a helping hand and for emotional support."

OUR home AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Home Is Where The Heart Is: "it is the place where [there is] a foundation of love, warmth, and happy memories." Our home is a three-story, modern townhouse featuring 4 bedrooms and 3.5 baths. My favorite room is the family/media room because it is cozy and perfect for family fun!

Living in a family-oriented neighborhood is ideal for any child! Our neighborhood features a pristine playground, a large swimming pool, tennis courts, and a lovely walking trail (The Silver Comet Trail) used for bicycling, running, hiking, walking dogs, horseback riding, roller/inline skating, and skateboarding!

Our promise to you...

I have always known I was placed on this earth to create value in the world and to be a mother; I have never given up on my mission and desire to fulfill both!

Adopting a child to whom I can share my love is a very special honor for me—an honor that I do not take lightly. Rest assured, I will love your child unconditionally and s/he will know love in a tangible way.

What's more, your child will have the best grandparents ever! My energetic mom and dad are thrilled that they will become first-time grandparents! My mother is retiring later this year (2022) and plans to spend much of her retired time with me and the baby.

Your baby will be warmly welcomed, protected, and showered with love! That is our promise to you!

Sincerely,
Excited Adoptive Mother
