

Becca & Jon

Hello, we are Becca & Jon

We are grateful to you for considering us as parents for your baby. We honor the incredible courage you have shown in choosing adoption for your child.

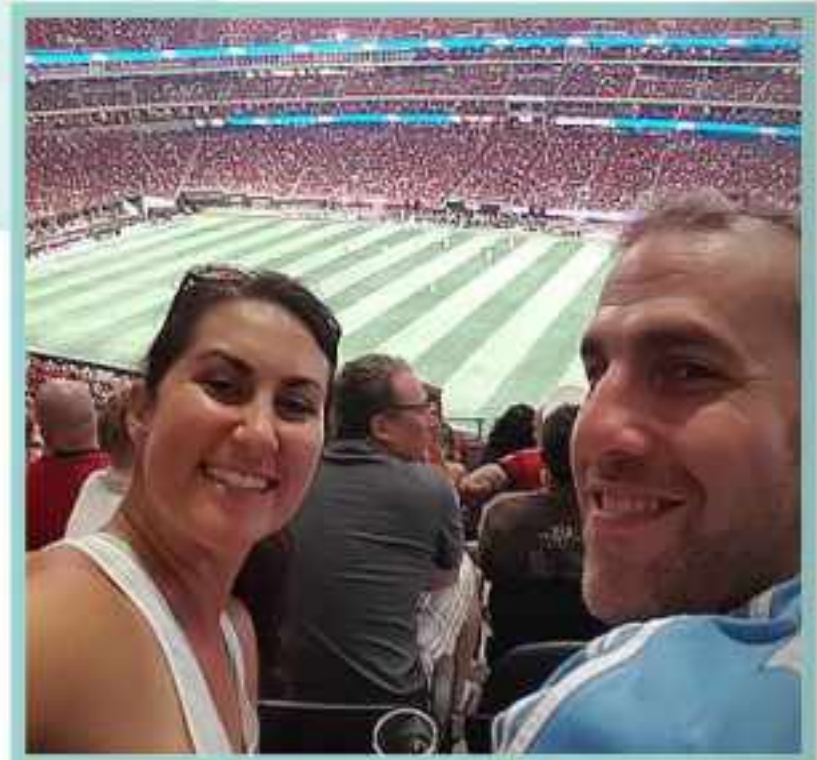

Becca's mom was adopted at birth by two immigrants who were new to America. Adoption has always been a wonderful part of Becca's family story. Since Becca was a child, she has always dreamed of adopting, and now Jon shares that dream, too.

While we have been blessed with two children, we know that there is another child who is meant to be a part of our family. We are excited to think that it may be your baby who we've been hoping for.

About Us

One day we happened to be walking through a park in opposite directions. Becca smiled at Jon (because she thought he was cute), and when he tried to catch up to her on the next lap, she'd already left the park.

Three days later we saw each other again at a restaurant, and Becca recognized Jon but couldn't figure out how she knew him. She asked Jon if he lived in her apartment complex. He said, "No, but you're the girl from the park and today I'm getting your number," and he hasn't stopped calling since. We have been together for 12 years.

Sometimes we are fancy and sometimes not so much!

We live our lives with a sense of adventure and love and lots of laughter. We love to travel, discover new music, be outdoors, and hang out with friends and family. We have found in each other a synergy that balances us both.

We have two children - Levi is five years old, and Lellani is three. We strive to raise them to be kind, thoughtful, and curious. We support and value the uniqueness in each of our children, as we will with your child. Creativity, determination, and compassion are qualities that we try to bring out in each of them.

We treasure our family time and enjoy reading and playing outside with our kids. We both love music and enjoy attending concerts. We also like trying food from all over the world at different restaurants in the city. We look forward to having another child be a part of all our family adventures.

Becca

All it took was a casual smile and wave hello in the park one day, and I knew I had to turn around to chase the beautiful girl who said hello. That day I was unsuccessful in finding her, but my luck turned soon after, and I've felt like the luckiest guy ever since.

Becca has this magnetic charm about her that has everyone who meets her wanting to spend more time with her. She has a passion for life that I haven't seen in anyone else I've ever met. She has inspired me to be a better person and to do more in life to keep up with the dreams that she has spoken of for so long.

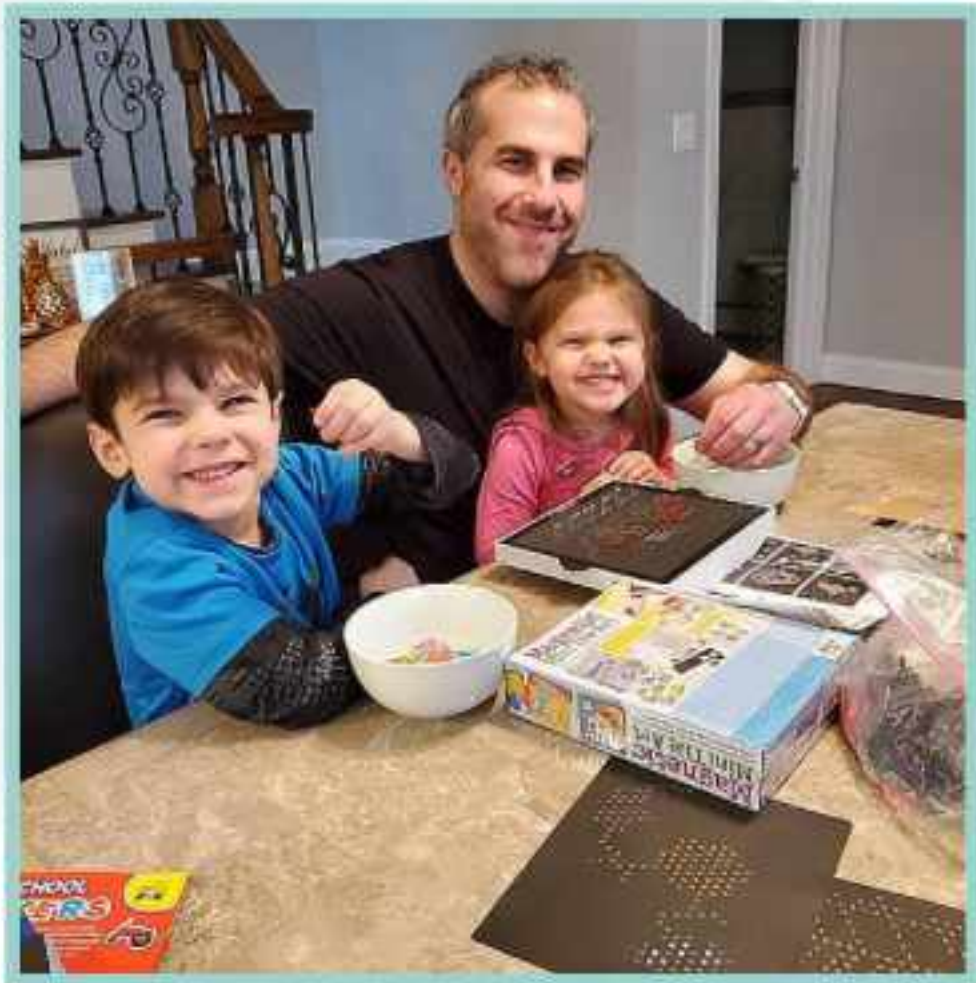

From day one, Becca has spoken to me about her dreams of adoption. I have heard stories from her mother and spoken to friends and colleagues about adoption, and I, too, share that dream. I have seen the excitement in our kids faces when we talk to them about having a new sibling. We look forward to loving your child, and we know that your baby will make our family complete.

While Becca had a lot of experience working with kids all day at her job, she had this magical touch as a mom. When it comes to our children, there is nothing that Becca wouldn't do to put a smile on their faces and ensure that they have the most comfortable environment in which to grow. She has wowed me in our close to six years as parents. She is a great teacher and partner in raising our children, and I know she looks forward to parenting another child together.

Jon

From the moment I met Jon, I could see the kindness in his eyes. He is, quite simply, the best person that I know. While I am always ready to plan our next adventure, he is forever there to ground me and show me the way home. We balance each other out in that way. I still can't believe my luck that I went for a walk in the park that day!

A native Atlantan, we joke that Jon is the real mayor of Atlanta because he knows everyone. He loves his work as an insurance broker, but he puts equal energy into the multiple charitable organizations with which he volunteers. He's a diehard University of Georgia Bulldogs fan and loves sports. He is a gourmet chef when it comes to breakfast for dinner.

He is my best friend and has shown himself to be exactly the amazing dad I always knew he would be. He is the best storyteller and seems to have an endless library of made-up tales for bedtime. He introduces the kids to new music and loves to cozy up on the couch to read with the kids on a rainy day. He is so excited for our family to grow and to love and encourage another child to discover his or her unique gifts.

Leilani

Leilani is as sweet and strong as they come. She does not hesitate to make her voice heard and loves to sing and build. She is a problem-solver, and while she is the smallest, she is often the leader among the cousins.

Levi has an inquisitive mind and has always had a love of animals and art. He is a loving, and supportive big brother and both he and Leilani frequently talk about having another baby. While we are sure they will fight over who gets to hold and play with your baby, we know how very much they will love and protect their new sibling, just as they do each other and their "cat sister" Chiquita.

Family

We are lucky to have a loving family, and we have the perfect place in our hearts and in our family for your baby.

Our extended family is truly our "village." One of Becca's two sisters lives on our street with her husband and two sons. Jon's two brothers, their wives, and six of our nieces and nephews, as well as his parents, are within three miles of us.

We are so fortunate to have family next door, and we also get together with Jon's family for dinner every week. The cousins are best friends and they love on the youngest members of the family. Your baby will be so loved and will fit perfectly into our loud, fun, and loving family.

Our Home

We are fortunate to live in an awesome neighborhood in Atlanta, Georgia, with many young families, several of whom have become our close friends. Our home sits on a cul-de-sac where the neighborhood kids often gather to play. Our yard backs up to 4.5 acres with a beautiful creek to explore. We also live walking-distance to several parks.

This is Chiquita our cat. We rescued her after her family lost their home in a fire. She loves to hang out with the kids, her favorite activities are to play underneath sheets and blankets, and nap in the sun.

Exploring at our favorite museum & parks

As a family we enjoy bike riding, exploring local parks, and visiting the zoo, aquarium, and local museums. We all have a love of the water and enjoy swimming at the pool and visiting the beach as much as we can.

Fun & Faves

- * Fun at the zoo
- * Playing sports
- * Being outside
  - * Dancing
- * Playing dress up
- * Reading lots and lots of books

Thank you for the opportunity to share our story with you. We promise that we will love your baby as much as the heart can love. Our children will always know of your selfless love that allowed us to become a family.
