

JOSH & MEGAN

Hello dear Birth Mom,

We are so honored and thankful that you are here to look at our profile book. We have so many emotions as we navigate this journey, so we cannot imagine the feelings you are experiencing. We are praying with and for you. As excited as we are, we also want you to know we see the decisions you are making.

We grieve with you, we pray with and over you, and we cheer you on. We would love to walk alongside you in this journey and in the journeys to come!

Love, Josh and Megan

Our Story

Josh and I met in 2010 at a Biology class in college. Upon our first encounter, Josh called his mom and said he was going to marry me. We married a year later. Shortly after our wedding, we added our first fur pup to our family and she's still with us today!

We had our first daughter in 2013, second daughter in 2016, and our son in 2019. (My pregnancy with him was quite an adventure!)

As our family grew, so has our love for the outdoors. Our garden grows bigger by the year, and we enjoy caring for our egg-laying chickens and a sometimes cuddly rabbit!

5 THINGS WE LOVE

- family trips to the mountains
- being outside in our garden and with our chickens
- spending time with our family and friends
- Shopping at antique/flea markets
- finding cute coffee shops

All About Megan

A NOTE FROM JOSH

I knew from the moment I met Megan that we were going to get married. She was kind, compassionate, and caring.

Megan has grown in those characteristics to a humble, kind, compassionate, caring, loving, homeschool mom, with many more wonderful attributes. Megan is the best mom for our kids, as she is a stay at home mom and is able to quickly tend to their needs. I appreciate her and all she does for the family by cooking, teaching, and loving the kids. Life would not be the same without her.

♥ Josh

Megan's favorite things

- Baking all things, especially sourdough
- House plants
- Intentional time with friends and family
- Coffee!

A NOTE FROM MEGAN

Josh is kind, caring, intentional, and will go out of his way to help anyone. If he can help, he will! He rarely meets a stranger, and will usually see someone he knows wherever he goes. He is a master of many trades, from his own job to fixing almost anything. He loves learning and furthering his education. He is a wonderful father who gives time to each child and loves them fiercely. He has had the joy of already baptizing one of our children! I am thankful to do this life with him!

favorite things

- Providing for my family
- Hunting, Fishing, Gardening
- Spending time with family
- Discovering new restaurants
- Visiting the mountains and beach

Our Kiddos

We have three kiddos who were born in 2013, 2016, and 2019. They love being in our backyard, helping with the chickens, watering the garden, or simply eating all the berries from the garden. They play lots of hide and seek, dress up, and board games. We enjoy frequenting our favorite nearby parks and going to the pool. They are very excited to be adding another member to our family!

Our oldest loves adventures and reading. Our middle child loves coloring and being outside. And our youngest loves all things dirt and dinosaurs!

We also have two fur puppies, Corrie, who is 11 and Abbi, who is almost two, along with a hamster, a rabbit, and our backyard chickens!

Our Family ♡ ♡ ♡ ♡ ♡

Celebrating our oldest child's baptism with family near and far!

Josh's side of the family lives about an hour away, which includes parents, four siblings, two nephews, great grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins. They have family gatherings, usually consisting of 50+ family members, and we make time to see the extended family, especially around the holidays!

Sweet cousins!

Mammy & Poppy meeting Baby G for the first time!

Megan's side of the family is a bit more spread out. Her parents and brother live less than 15 minutes away and go to the same church. Her grandfather lives about 30 minutes away, and extended family in California. Her mother spends a lot of time with us and the kids during the week, and helps us when we need it. Megan's parents take the kids on frequent "adventures," like going to parks, walking in creeks, hiking, or just getting ice cream together. The kids LOVE this intentional time with their grandparents!

Adventures with Mam & Papa

We also have "adopted" parents/grandparents that live 20 minutes away. We got to know them from our church, and they treat us as if we were their own kids and grandkids. We are so blessed with our grandparent support system.

Our Friends

We have a very tight knit community of friends. Since we have been in the same community for our entire relationship, our roots are deep! We live in close proximity to our dearest friends and see them often! Whether we're going through highs and lows, we're always there for each other!

We have friends scattered throughout the U.S. and in other countries.

Though some may not be near, they are always close to our hearts and just a phone call away.

Our Home

We have lived in our home since December 2016. Our home has quick and easy access to three close towns with tons of parks, trails, and farmers' markets that we regularly enjoy.

We recently renovated nearly all of our home, from its almost original 1980's state into a much brighter and welcoming place. We have a large lot with tons of space for the kids to play and a garden that grows bigger every year. We have wonderful neighbors who pull together to help serve each other in many ways, including keeping watch for each other in the neighborhood. Our home is just one mile from Josh's work, so we know he'll be home in just minutes after he gets off from work.

Thank you

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us.
We hope to meet you and learn about you!
Until then, we are praying for you!
