

Dear Potential Birth Parents,

I am Jennifer and I appreciate you taking time to look at my life at a glance. I have always wanted to have a family. I have a very good life and a lot of love to share. I know that I can give a child a very happy, special and full life.

My life has been a wonderful journey richly filled with love, family, friends and happiness. My family and I look forward to welcoming a new baby into our lives to love and nurture. It has always been my dream to become a mother and to have a child in my life to love unconditionally.

It has always been my dream to become a mother and to have a child in my life to love unconditionally. As a result of the wonderful experiences and relationships that I have with the children in my life, I realize that what I want most is to start my family through adoption.

About me...

I believe that my friends and family would best describe me as loyal, committed, thoughtful and a true friend. I have maintained relationships with childhood friends and made new friendships that will last a lifetime. I met amazing people in college and through work and sports. They make me laugh, keep me grounded and we are always there for each other when times get rough. I enjoy weekends spent outdoors, going on hikes with my dogs, Nash and River, and fishing. I enjoy exploring new places and look forward to new adventures with a family of my own. I am known to be fun and sociable and thrive when I am around people.

I have a rewarding career as a school psychologist. My students are always challenging me and they make me a better person. I have been working with children from ages 4-13 for over 17 years. I am at a point in my life where I am ready to devote myself to motherhood. I appreciate all of the wonderful things life has to offer. I hope that someday I can share my love and life with my child. I greatly look forward to becoming a mom and know that I can give so much of myself to a child.

My Parents...

My parents, Martin and DiDi, are the most loving parents and would do anything for me. They are supportive and kind and such wonderful grandparents. My mom is a nurse. She has this kind hearted manner that attracts all people. She is loving and goes above and beyond to take care of her children, even to this day. We love to travel together and experience all life has to offer. She is my best friends and the best grandmother. She lives 1 mile from me and we see each other every day. I cannot wait to share these precious moments with her when I am raising a child of my own.

My dad is one of the smartest people I know. He is an extraordinary doctor and still enjoys learning new things. He is a wonderful dad and always offers the best advice and a shoulder to lean on. I was always able to count on him no matter what obstacles stood in my way. He is the best grandfather and cannot wait to welcome another baby into our family.

My siblings...

I am extremely lucky to have three amazing siblings I can call my best friends. Through all life's ups and downs, they have been there and will continue to do so throughout my life. My sister, Carrie and her husband, Alex are so easy to be around. They are the best aunt and uncle to their nieces and nephews. We see each other almost every day and go on fun adventures and hikes all the time. My sister, Jaye and her husband, Jerry have two children, Max and Claire. Watching them become parents has inspired me and I know they will be such amazing role models to my baby. My brother, Danny and his wife Lisa, have two beautiful daughters, Erin and Nora. Although the kids are older, I know they will be a huge part of my child's life. I am so excited for the growth of our family.

My family and friends are the most important thing to me. I spend so much time with them and their children. They support me through every venture and I am so excited to share this journey with each one of them.

I hope that in reading this letter, and looking at the special times I have shared, that you have some sense of who I am. I know that if I am fortunate enough to adopt, this baby will be loved beyond compare. I feel that having a child will be the greatest blessing to me in so many ways. I know how much joy this child will bring to me as a parent, and to my family as a grandchild, niece, nephew, and cousin.

I am excited about this new phase in my journey. I am honored to be considered as an adoptive parent, and would love the opportunity to meet with you.

Warmest regards,
Jennifer
