

Josh and Alexis

Josh- Born and raised in Utah by his mom and dad. He was raised with his 2 younger sisters whom he adores and still picks on as the occasion arises. He is a handy man who can do just about anything if you give him the time and tools to figure it out. He previously was a delivery driver for a glass company but during 2020 was laid off, giving him the opportunity to take his part time dog grooming business and make it his full time job. The best part is, its right out of our garage and so he works from home.

He loves to be outside gardening or fishing. He definitely believes in green therapy. He is rarely seen without an earbud in at least one ear and you never know if he will be jamming out to music, watching a show, or learning something new from a podcast. Going to visit family is one of his bright spots and due to his former job, can be in the car for hours without stopping. He definitely always a joke or amusing an Alexis- Also born and raised in Utah by her mom and dad. Raise with 1 younger sister, whom she constantly frets over after a few years of childhood cancer. She is one of the most caring people on the planet. Though currently working in the healthcare world, she was previously a full time nanny and spent years helping to raise twin girls, who just started in college.

She loves to spend time with the people she cares about, it doesn't really matter what they are doing. A lot of her time is spent connecting with family and friends, usually over a game of some sort. In her alone time, she likes to read and is working on meditation to help calm her mind after a busy work day. She likes to go all out for things she is invested in, especially if it involves getting to dress up in something silly. When she can, she enjoys practicing her sign language, in which she is fluent.

We live in a small home in Salt Lake Valley (Utah), with our 3 dogs. Spending time together is usually on a project, going for a walk (or a drive as the weather allows), and doing our best to startle a laugh out of the other person. We enjoy being able to "take the filters off" when we are together and often surprise even ourselves with what will come out of our mouths. We were lucky enough to find a partner this is our best friend, too! As we live close to family, we spend a lot of time with them and our friends whom we consider family as well. We hope you love us as much as we love each other (most of the time).
