Dear Potential Birth Parents,

My name is Elizabeth and I appreciate you taking the time to look at my life at a glance. I have strong morals and values when it comes to family. I was raised by amazing people who define the word parent. They have taught me so much and I can only hope to carry on these values to my child.

My life has been a wonderful journey richly filled with love, family, friends and happiness. My family and I look forward to welcoming a new baby into our lives to love and nurture. It has always been my dream to become a mother and to have a child to love unconditionally.

As a result of the wonderful experiences and relationships that I have with the children around me, I realize that what I want most is to start my family through adoption.

About Me...

I believe that my friends and family would best describe me as warm, caring, passionate and a true friend. There isn't anything that I would not do for the people that I love. When it comes to family I am very protective of their needs and feelings. My love for my family and friends is strong.

From the time I was in Kindergarten, I have always wanted to be a teacher. I have been a teacher for 20 years and currently teach Kindergarten. I love my students dearly and treat them as if they are my own kids. I try to make them each feel special in their own way.

I love to cook and bake! Christmas time is my favorite time to bake and be creative. Traveling around the country and to new cities has been educational and fun. I love to meet new people from different cultures. I appreciate all of the wonderful things life has to offer.

I hope that someday I can share my love and life with my child. I greatly look forward to becoming a mom and know that I can give so much of myself to a child.

My Parents...

My parents, Lois and Stanley, were happily married for 48 years. They are the foundation of our family and built a beautiful life for themselves. They did everything for their three children.

My mom is a retired Academic Librarian. She is smart and has a love of learning.

She is going to be an amazing grandmother that will have lots of educational toys around! My dad was extremely funny and warm. He is sadly missed every day and I hope I have made him proud.

My parents have supported me through all life's ups and downs. Expanding our family will start a new chapter in our lives and everyone is excited to embark on this journey alongside me.

My Siblings...

I am so lucky to call my siblings my best friends. We have shared a special bond ever since we were children and continue to have an amazing relationship as adults.

My sister, Jennifer, is a guidance counselor. She is smart and fun. I love spending time with her, she is my best friend. We travel together and experience life together, she is going to be the best aunt.
My brother, Matthew, is married to Nicole. They are both teachers and love children. They recently got married and look forward to starting a family.
Having a niece or nephew will give them great practice for their future!

And Their Beautiful Children...

I hope that in reading this letter, and looking at some of the special snapshots from my life, you have a sense of who I am and how much love I have to give. I know that if I am fortunate enough to adopt, this baby will be loved beyond compare.

The health and happiness of this child will always be my main priority, no matter what. I feel that having a child will be the greatest blessing to me. I know how much joy this child will bring to me as a parent; and to my family as a grandchild, niece, nephew, and friend.

I am excited about this new phase in my journey, and look forward to bringing a child into my life. I am honored to be considered as an adoptive parent, and would love the opportunity to meet with you.

Warmest Regards,
Elizabeth
