

Dear Expectant Mama,

Hello, We are Scott, Christine and Grace!

Our furry kids are Hudson; (a.k.a) Handsome, Chocolate and Tucker;(a.k.a) Mr. Kit

Thank you for taking the time to learn about us. Please know that we honor and value your courage to choose adoption for your baby. We are so excited and hopeful to adopt and grow our family! No matter whom you choose to entrust your child, we wish you and your child all the best! We pray that this book helps give you a good sense into who we are!

We strive to put these values
into our daily lives:

love, joy, peace,
pa t i e n c e, k i n d n e s s,
goodness, faithfulness,
gentleness & self-control.

We are not perfect and certainly have flaws, but we humbly go before God and ask for His mercy, grace and forgiveness.

about us

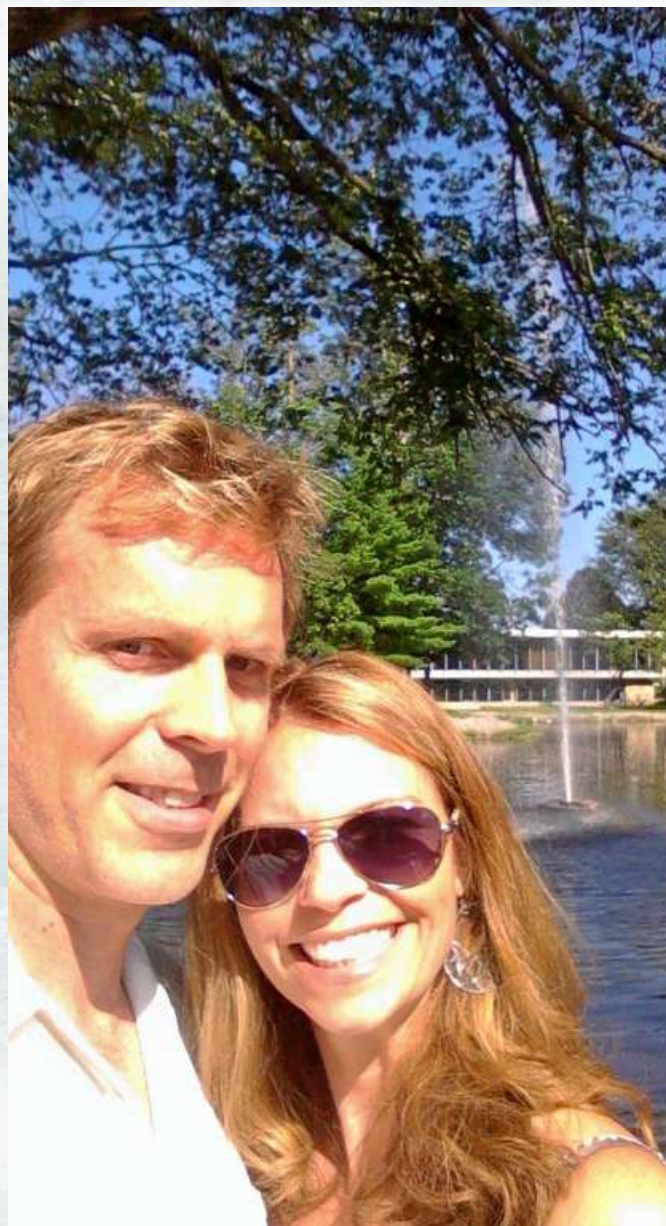

We are happy to tell you about us and the life we enjoy together!

We want to adopt because we want to share our love with a little sibling. Grace loves little children. Her favorite area to serve at church is with the infants and toddlers. It's a joy to watch her. It's our hearts desire to be able to watch her at home with a sibling.

We enjoy friends and family at our home anytime. We really enjoy being home. The things we enjoy most are taking Hudson our chocolate lab on walks, jumping on the trampoline, backyard bonfires, bike riding around on the trailways, enjoying dinner on the back deck, Friday night movie and pizza, Sunday afternoon brunch and snuggles.....Home is where the heart is!

We often say when we come home from adventures and going places "we love to go, but there's no place like home!"

Our Christian faith is very important to us. It teaches us how to love and forgive and that is the foundation of our family. We go to church every Sunday and attend a weekly bible study, it's a lifestyle. We have been married for 23 years and have learned to manage the ups and downs by applying our faith to keep peace within our family.
