Desio...

My husband, Desio is an amazing man. I fell in love with him not only for his nurturing personality, but because he has the wonderful ability to share so much of himself with everyone in his life.

Desio has an exciting career as an assistant manager for a sporting club. He loves meeting people every day. Desio's clients have become like family to him and he forms special bond with everyone he meets.

Desio loves entertaining family and friends in our home. He is an amazing cooks and loves to think up new recipes. This is something he enjoys sharing with Davi. They play chef in the kitchen and love to make messes and just have fun! He is an incredible dad who puts Davi's needs above all else. He cannot wait to have another child to make new memories with.

Javier...

I can definitely say that I have never met a more amazing man than my husband, Javier. He has such a wonderful energy about him that makes him so special and unique. Javier displays such a great amount of compassion, confidence, intelligence and devotion in all that he does. He truly is the love of my life.

Javier has a successful career as a project manager for a construction company. He loves listening to music and enjoys spending time with family, friends and our dogs. He has a love of learning new things and is always looking for a new adventure.

His generosity and kind-hearted ways make him a great husband, friend and father. He loves to take Davi to the park and beach and run around like he's a kid himself. They have so much fun together and Davi really looks up to him. Having another child will bring him so much joy and excitement. This will be his greatest blessing.

Davi...

Davi is an extraordinary 2 year old little boy. He is the light of our lives and the reason we wake up every day knowing we can become the best individuals we can be! Davi is sweet, kind, and sensitive to other children. If he senses they are in distress, he tries to comfort them by sharing one of his toys. He is smart, funny, affectionate and a joy to us and to everyone around him. He is the greatest love of our lives and we can't wait to share all this love with a little sister or little brother. Davi is genuine and special in so many ways. We believe Davi will be an amazing good big brother as he shows us at a very young age so much affection and love. His love made us great parents and we are ready to expand our happiness by welcoming another child into our lives.

Desio's Family...

My parents lived life happily together for many years. I never met my biological father, Nildesio, as he passed away when I was very young. My mother, Tina, is very generous. She is caring, considerate, protective and has a great sense of humor. My stepdad, Getulio, was a great father figure. He loved me as if I were his own blood. Unfortunately, he passed away a few years ago. I miss him every day. My mom is a retired nurse and loves spending time with her grandchildren. Davi adores her and she cannot wait to have another grandchild.

I have one brother, Eduardo, who is my best friend. He is a business owner of a HVAC company. Eduardo is married to Michelle. They have three children, Eduardo, Eduarda, and Isadora. We try to spend as much time with them as possible. Family is very important to us and our bond is unbreakable. When we adopted Davi, that bond grew even stronger. The kids love their baby cousin and can't wait for another!

Javier's Family...

My mom and dad have been happily married for 36 years. They have shown me the true meaning of love and marriage. My mom, Silvia, has worked in the restaurant business her entire life. She is a hard working, caring and protective mother who has always considered her children and grandchildren's happiness her main priority. My dad, Javier, works in communication. His willingness to always learn is one of his best qualities. They love spending time with their grandchildren and spoiling them with lots of love!

I have an older sister and a twin sister who have always been a huge influence in my life. My sister, Pamela, is an IT programmer. She is married to Ivan and they have a 6 year old daughter, Yatzil and just welcomed another baby last year. She has always been so supportive of Desio and I and welcomed Davi with open arms.

My sister, Jacqueline, is a chemist. She is an intelligent woman and hopes to raise a family of her own one day. She is engaged to her partner, Mahira. They love children and love watching our family grow.

Our family means the world to us. We spend as much time with our nieces as nephews as we can. The kids have taken Davi under their wings and love to show him new games to play and songs to sing. They are tremendous role models and set such great examples for the little ones!

We hope that in reading this letter and looking at the special times that we have shared that you have some sense of who we are. We would be so blessed to be chosen as adoptive parents. We promise to provide a loving and supportive home, a place to grow, learn, love and be loved. He or she will be guided to blossom into their own unique person, celebrate their given talents, and pursue what brings them joy. Our home is a place of comfort, where a warm hug will always be waiting.

The things that matter the most to us are unconditional love, encouragement, support, respect and trust. This is what our marriage is built on and our family will grow with the same ideals.

We are excited about this new phase in our journey together and look forward to bringing another child into our lives. We are honored to be considered as adoptive parents and we would love the opportunity to meet with you.

Warmest Regards,
Desio and Javier
