MONIQUE - COLLEGE FRIEND

a note from Monique

AUTUMN'S BEST FRIEND
SINCE COLLEGE

I've known Autumn since I was a Junior in College. Since we've met she's been a bright light in my life and in our friend circle. She is the one I call for sound advice, a shoulder to cry on and a baby sitter I can trust. She goes above and beyond for her family and friends and has always talked about having children since I can remember. I've seen her with her nieces/nephews and God children and she is always loving, patient and ensures they are always learning something to keep their minds sharp. When she buys gifts for my son she makes sure to get him something cool and educational. I can't wait to watch and be apart of her journey as a mom.

about my career

I OWN A SKINCARE COMPANY

I CAN HAVE MY CAKE AND EAT
IT TO..

I started a thriving skincare business in 2021. I wanted to create products that weren't harsh to the body but still effective and affordable. The name of my skincare line will be the name of my baby girl as this will be her legacy that will teach her how to work hard, be compassionate for others and service others humbly, how to be an entrepreneur if she chooses or educating her on something she may be interested in if she decides to further her education.

I've been in the Fin tech industry for over 12 years. I started off in customer Service and worked my way up through different positions and companies. I am now a Director for a Marketing company as an Account Director where I manage relationships between our clients and the company I work for. I actually love my job because i get to service and support others.

I HAVE ALWAYS WANTED TO BE A MOM!

Since I can remember I've always wanted to be a mom. As a young girl I would always do my littles cousins and sisters hair, boss them around and act like their momma (joking sorta kinda) pick out clothes, paint nails. My mother was a foster mom to two twin girls when I was a teenager and I was in LOVE. They were always attached at my hip. I enjoyed teaching them how to cook, making up dances, going to the park or water park, being nosy when they were on the phone and most importantly showing them genuine and unconditional love at all time.

In 2020 I learned of my challenges with conceiving. My partner at the time was so gentle and kind with me during our journey to conceive and during our journey to IVF he passed away. His love is always with me and I vowed to show the love he showed my God daughter and me while he was a blessing in our lives. His pure love, affection, thoughtfulness, and so much more will carry me through this journey.

LOVE IS GREATER THAN DNA

HOME SWEET GEORGIA

I live in a 4 bedroom 3 bath home in Georgia...

My home is on a quaint street in a quiet neighborhood in Atlanta, GA. I love having quick access to the city, but with a small town feel. I love hosting BBQs for our neighbors and family.

I also love there are several daycares and schools private and public that are sought out in the area. I want to ensure my baby girl has the best and lives somewhere that has culture. diversity and a feeling of community.

I enjoy decorating and cant wait to prep and prepare my little girls room.

Autumn's Mom

MY DAUGHTER IS A VERY CARING PERSON...

Autumn has been a blessing and a comfort in my life since the day she was born. I'd like to think her values and morals were taught to her at a young age which I know she will pass along to her children when the time comes. She is such a giving person and goes out her way for others. She raised her God Daughter until she was 3 years old until her mom got on her feet. Autumn is always in support of others but still holds people accountable for doing the right thing. She is a God-fearing woman and holds her faith close to her. Needless to say I can't wait to be a bomb Grandma to her kids.

THANK YOU

FOR TAKING THE TIME TO OPEN MY BOOK

I hope this has given you a good glimpse into my life!

While I don't claim to be perfect I do strive to be gentle with myself at all times. I hope this profile highlights the good in me and the sincerity I have in my heart. Along my journey I am looking to give love, show others how to love and be a light to everyone around me. My goal in raising children is to teach them how to be genuinely good people in this world. While this profile book shows alot of the good aspects as with anyone I am still learning but always putting my best foot forward in everything that I do.

xoxo, Autumn

Can't wait to meet you!
