

Dear Potential Birth Parents,

We want to share the dream of our family with you. As we grow our family, we look forward to a life filled with more love, laughter, music, and travel. Family hugs and doggie kisses, s'mores by a fire, views from a mountain top or sandy beaches, burgers at the family bbq and Christmas carols around the piano are just some of our favorites that we hope to provide.

Hi, we are Patty and Tim. We are so eager to welcome a baby into our home, surrounded with love in large family gatherings, and to share our joy of adventure. Ten years ago, we met through a mutual friend, participating in an activity club. We spent days laughing and strengthening our friendship, and our love story began. We have been happily married for 2 years. Our personalities complement and balance each other, and we enjoy learning from each other.

Having children has always been something we envisioned for our lives together and we are excited to build our family through adoption. Our greatest wish and desire is to have a child to love, nurture, guide, and protect.

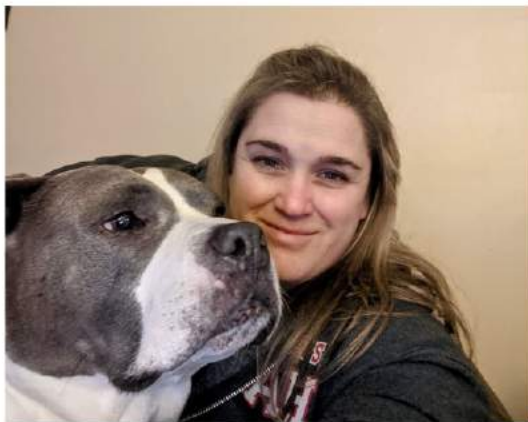

Patty...

My wife, Patty, is the kindest, loving, and most caring person I know. Putting others' needs above her own is what I admire most about her. She is an incredible woman and everyone's friend. Patty is a speech therapist. She loves her job but looks forward to spending time at home with her family.

Patty loves spending time outdoors. Whether it be kayaking or taking hikes with our dogs, she is happiest when she is out and about. She takes time out to plan trips with her family and friends. She is crafty and loves to bake with her family.

Patty is an exceptional person, she is the love of my life. She looks forward to going to her niece's recitals and nephew's sporting events. Patty's thoughtfulness, patience, and warmth are going to make her an amazing mother. I cannot wait for this next phase in our lives.

Tim...

My husband, Tim, is a wonderful man. He has a successful career as an electrical engineer. I have always known him to be a dedicated, hard worker and he values education. He loves learning new skills, whether it be cooking or woodworking. Tim is an extremely talented piano player and is so excited to teach our children one day.

Tim is an outdoorsman who loves to ski and hike. In his spare time, he enjoys traveling and spending time with our dogs. He is a great navigator and leads the way to fun adventures while hiking through the woods. What he enjoys the most is taking his nieces and nephews along for the ride. He loves sharing these experiences with them.

Tim loves being around his family and friends. He enjoys having them over for a family barbecue as often as he can. He is very sociable and gets along with everyone. I am so lucky to have him in my life and I cannot wait to raise a child with him. He is going to be an amazing father.

Patty's Family...

My parents, Margaret and William, are loving, devoted parents. They instilled in me a strong value for life and dedicated their time to make sure their children had an abundance of success. My mom is fiercely devoted to our family, always happy and positive, loves to share hugs and make everybody feel included. My dad is very smart, a good problem solver, and very honest. They love spending time with their grandchildren and are so excited for Tim and I to expand our family.

I am so lucky to have such a special bond with each of my siblings. We love to travel together with our families. My sister, Ann Marie is one of my best friends. We are very close to her and her husband, Steven. They have 4 amazing children, Christopher, 26, Brian, 24, Thomas, 19, and Elizabeth, 17. My brother, John, is such a strong supporter in our family. He and his wife, Christine also have four children, Angelica, 23, Gabriella, 21, Michael, 19, and Joseph, 15. To say our family vacations are fun is an understatement!

We love to go on ski vacations and beach trips. It is always a great time and we cannot wait to add to the fun with a new baby!

Tim's Family...

My parents, Mary and Francis, are the true meaning of love and marriage. They were happily married for 48 years. Unfortunately, my dad passed away a few years ago. We miss him every day. They always made family time a priority and my mom still does to this day. My mom is very independent, young-at-heart, eager to learn new things, and very organized. My dad was family-oriented, a brilliant logical man, and a good role model. I know my mom would love nothing more than to become a grandmother. She is going to love this child beyond compare.

My sister, Susan, is an advertising consultant. She is a strong, independent woman who has been there for me from the very beginning. We have been close our entire lives and are still the best of friends. Susan loves children and is so excited to be an aunt. She is going to spoil this child with so much love.

Family is the most important thing to us. We love to travel with our family, go to sporting events and just get together in the backyard. They mean everything to us!

We hope that in reading this letter and looking at the special times we have shared, that you have a good sense of who we are. We know that when we are fortunate to adopt, this child will be so loved because we are two generous, kind-hearted, responsible people who have so much to give.

We promise to raise this baby to love others, be kind and compassionate, and always be willing to help others in need. Our home is filled with family and laughter. We will protect and guide this baby into childhood and adulthood.

We are excited about this new phase in our journey together, and we look forward to bringing a child into our lives. We are honored to be considered as adoptive parents and we would love the opportunity to meet with you.

Warmest regards,
Patty and Tim
