

Eve and Chris

Our story began in 2014 when we met in our small town over Memorial Day weekend. We first met in a local pub. Chris had just moved back home and I had plans to go canoeing with friends the next day but did not have a canoeing partner. I felt intrigued by Chris and wanted to know more so I invited him on the trip. We quickly became inseparable! We bonded over our love of animals, travel and adventure, and we've shared a deep connection from pretty much the moment we met.

It was our greatest wish to start a family to share in our love and the wonderful life that we have built together. Our wish came true when we adopted our son, Ceejay. He has changed our lives in so many ways. We truly love being parents and cannot wait to adopt another child and also watch Ceejay become a big brother! We have learned so much about adoption and realized what matters most is having children in our lives no matter how they come to us. We are so excited to embark on this journey again.

Eve...

From the day I met Eve, she gave off an amazing glow and just has an all around wonderful presence about her. She is easy to speak to and gives you a sense of comfort when around her. Her compassion and kind heart led me to want to share a life with her. Originally a city girl, she moved out to the country to follow her dreams of being in a small town where she could have horses and dogs and a different pace of life. Eve works in the corporate world and is excellent at her job, but being a mom is the role she was meant to be. She is so naturally maternal and Ceejay just adores her.

You're likely to find us anywhere there are animals to see and touch. Be it a zoo, an aquarium, or visiting the local pet shelter in the mall, we're both big animal lovers and would love to be able to share that passion with our children!

Eve has the ability to mingle with anyone from all walks of life. She is an amazing well rounded person full of love who goes through life being extremely humble and treats everyone equal. She has a lot of life experiences. Having children in our life brings her a tremendous amount of joy and she already is an amazing mother. I couldn't think of a better person whom I would love to grow a family with.

Chris...

If I had to pick three words to describe Chris they would be loyal, kind and strong. He's the backbone of our family and he works very hard every day to make sure we are both content and happy, something I know he will do for our children as well. Chris is in retail. He is very creative and loves to find and collect new things.

One of our favorite things to do on a weekend is to wake up, grab a coffee and head out on a daily adventure. We love traveling near and far, but some of our best adventures are just a short drive away! We love finding small little towns with character, so we can wander around to the shops and meet all the interesting locals. We're both history buffs so exploring old hotels, homes and architecture is always tons of fun.

Chris is my rock, and he is the man I was waiting for my whole life who I didn't know existed. He starts every day off with a smile, he tries his hardest at everything he does, and he loves with all of his heart. He is an amazing father and I know Ceejay will look up to him and want to be just like him when he grows up! We cannot wait to have more children.

Ceejay...

We feel so lucky to have adopted our son, Ceejay, two years ago. He is the most fun, loving little boy and he has brought us so much joy. Ceejay loves the movie Cars and all things Hot Wheels. He is silly and loves to play outside. We know that he will be the best big brother and we are so excited to expand our family.

We hope in reading this letter and looking at the special times that we have shared that you have some sense of who we are. We would be so blessed to be chosen as adoptive parents.

We promise to provide a loving and supportive home, a place to grow, learn, love and be loved. He or she will be guided to blossom into their own unique person, celebrate their given talents, and pursue what brings them joy. Our home is a place of comfort, where a warm hug will always be waiting.

The things that matter the most -- unconditional love, encouragement, support, respect and trust -- is what our marriage is built on and our family will grow with the same ideals.

We are excited about this new phase in our journey together and look forward to bringing another child into our lives. We are honored to be considered as adoptive parents and we would love the opportunity to meet with you.
