How We Met

Michael proposed in 2013 in Downtown Nashville.

Our wedding day
March 29, 2014

We met in middle school through mutual friends. We were high school sweethearts and eventually were engaged in 2013. We have overcome so many of life's challenges together, but we have also found so much joy! We truly consider each other best friends as well as soul mates.

Our Pets

Max and Luna are our rescue pups who love to play in our yard with our niece and nephew and go on walks around our neighborhood.

Our Home

Our home is a 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom that sits on about half an acre. We love living in middle Tennessee near so many of our friends and family.

One of our favorite spaces in our home is the cozy living room.

We love spending time with our friends and family in our backyard.

Our Community

From sports to parks to museums, there is so much to explore and enjoy in middle Tennessee.

One Last Note: Thank You

We are so humbled and thankful that you have taken the time to learn about our story.

We promise your child will always know their entire life journey, beginning with you and your selfless love for them.

We promise to celebrate your child's individuality, culture, and ambitions.

We promise to nurture their curiosity with fun adventures and new experiences.

We promise to surround your child with unconditional love and support throughout life's joys and challenges.
