

Dear Expectant Mom,

We are delighted to introduce ourselves as Michael and Ronnie, a loving and compassionate interracial couple eagerly embarking on the journey of adoption to welcome a child into our family. We understand that the decision you are facing is undoubtedly one of the most challenging ones you will ever make. Please know that we are here to support you in every way possible, offering you the care and assistance you need during this process.

Our home is nestled in a picturesque, historic, and slightly rural neighborhood within the suburbs, not far from the vibrant city of New York. This charming village boasts a delightful duck pond teeming with cheerful ducks, geese, turtles, fish, and graceful swans. The pond, a beloved spot for local children, is conveniently situated right across the street from our home. It provides an idyllic setting for play and exploration, fostering a sense of wonder and connection with nature. In our neighborhood, we are fortunate to have easy access to numerous parks, beaches, and a captivating harbor front.

These natural wonders offer us endless opportunities for swimming, boating, and kayaking adventures, allowing us to appreciate the beauty of the outdoors and create cherished memories together. Living in close proximity to New York City grants us the privilege of introducing our child to a diverse cultural tapestry.

We envision taking them to experience the magic of Broadway plays, awe-inspiring concerts, graceful ballet performances, lively dancing events, thrilling sports activities, captivating opera shows, and enriching museum visits. We want our child to embrace a world full of vibrant experiences, fostering their creativity, curiosity, and appreciation for the arts and culture.

Education is of utmost importance to us, and we are fortunate to reside in an area renowned for its top-rated schools. These institutions are not only committed to academic excellence but also foster an inclusive environment that celebrates diversity in all its forms. Your child will have the opportunity to learn and grow alongside peers from various backgrounds, gaining a broader perspective and cultivating lifelong friendships. We firmly believe in nurturing your child's individuality and helping them explore their passions. Whether it's sailing, fishing, dance, painting, horseback riding, or any other activity that ignites their curiosity, we are dedicated to providing them with the resources and opportunities to pursue their interests wholeheartedly.

Above all, we want you to know that our love for your child will know no bounds. We promise to provide them with unwavering support, care, and kindness throughout their life's journey. Your child will be cherished and uplifted in a home filled with love, laughter, and warmth. We are committed to creating a nurturing environment where they can flourish, offering guidance, encouragement, and a safe space to freely express themselves.

We hope these words convey our heartfelt intentions and the depth of our commitment. Should you choose us as adoptive parents, we will be forever grateful for the trust you place in us. Your child will be embraced into a family overflowing with love, compassion, and joy.

With warm regards and our sincerest best wishes for you and your baby,

Michael + Ronnie

"Walks through our beautiful gardens and pond, art lessons, trips to Disney, sports, horseback riding, swimming, family outings will be all part of the life we will share with your child."

We are Ronnie and Michael, and we can't contain our excitement as we eagerly share our love story with you. Seven years ago, our paths crossed and an instant connection sparked between us, forging a bond that would blossom into the most extraordinary love story. We started off as the best of friends, but little did we know that our friendship would evolve into something truly magical. Every passing day has only strengthened the love we share, and together, we continue to grow as individuals and as a couple, cherishing the countless moments that have shaped our journey.

HOME + COMMUNITY

Our cozy home is nestled in a charming and historic suburb, with a touch of countryside vibes that adds to its allure. Although it's not far from the vibrant energy of New York City, it feels like a little slice of paradise. Just across the street from our humble abode lies a picturesque duck pond, which is home to a delightful array of ducks, geese, turtles, fish, and majestic swans. On sunny days, the pond comes alive with the joyful laughter and playful antics of children, creating an atmosphere brimming with happiness.

The neighborhood we live in boasts some of the top-rated schools in the country. These educational institutions embrace and celebrate children of all colors and ethnicities, fostering an environment of inclusivity and diversity. We are fully committed to providing your child with a world of opportunities, whether it's through dance lessons, sailing adventures, fishing escapades, painting sessions, horseback riding, or any other pursuit that sparks their curiosity.

RONNIE

Ronnie, my incredible wife, is a beacon of kindness, love, and care. Her selflessness and ability to prioritize the needs of others have always amazed me. Not only is she an amazing woman, but she is also everyone's best friend.

Ronnie's determination led her to open her own business, where she thrives as a leader. Although she adores her work, her heart eagerly awaits the moments spent at home, where she can fully embrace her role as a loving and dedicated mother.

Ronnie finds solace in writing at coffee shops, and her intelligence and passion for baking, painting, and home decor will undoubtedly be shared with our future child.

MICHAEL

Michael, my incredible husband, is a truly remarkable man. As an accomplished entrepreneur, he has always been known for his dedication and hard work. There's an infectious energy about him that makes him uniquely special. Michael finds joy in the great outdoors, but he also appreciates the serenity of our cozy haven. He's an enthusiast of crossword puzzles and an avid swimmer.

Our home has transformed into his personal secret garden, where he nurtures the most stunning landscapes. Cooking is one of his passions, and he creates mouthwatering meals using fresh herbs from our garden.

Trust me, his culinary skills are out of this world! Let's now talk about our amazing families, who are overjoyed at the thought of welcoming a new member: Ronnie's family has played an instrumental role in shaping her into the extraordinary person she is today.

Ronnie's family

Ronnie's parents, Margaret and Ronald, shared a beautiful marriage that unfortunately ended with her father's passing. Memories of their love and support remain etched in Ronnie's heart. They encouraged her and her sisters, Monica and Nichole, to be themselves, ensuring they received the best education. Ronnie's mom, a dedicated bookkeeper, provided a wonderful childhood filled with love and care.

Both of her sisters hold special places in Ronnie's heart. Monica runs her own private practice, sharing her intelligence and love as a nurturing aunt. Nichole, a business owner herself, is happily married to Ned, and they have a beautiful daughter named Ava. Our family is beyond excited to love this baby with all their hearts.

Michael's family

In Michael's family, love and support have always been abundant. Although his parents divorced when he was young, it never impacted the immense love and involvement he received. His mom, Katherine, is happily married to Charles, and they radiate warmth and fun. Michael's dad, also named Michael, found love in his marriage to Patty. The close proximity of our families allows us to gather for joyful celebrations, holidays filled with love, and unforgettable birthdays. As Michael gained two bonus parents, he also gained six incredible siblings.

Over the years, their relationships have grown into an unbreakable bond, proving that the love between siblings transcends bloodlines. Our family gatherings are filled with love, laughter, and the sound of children having the time of their lives. We are eternally grateful for the family we were blessed with.

Our dearest friends and extended family, who are located nearby, are eagerly waiting to be an additional support system for our future child. Their love knows no bounds, and they are excited to shower this little one with all the affection and care in the world. Trust forms the foundation of our marriage, built on love, support, encouragement, and unwavering honesty. As our family grows, these values will be at the core of everything we do. We are bursting with excitement for this new phase in our journey and the opportunity to welcome a child into our loving home. We feel deeply honored to be considered as adoptive parents, and we would be overjoyed to meet with you.
