

Victoria & Matthew

Meet Matt and Victoria, your potential forever family, and get ready for a heartfelt journey filled with love, laughter, and unforgettable moments.

Our love story...

Our story began in the summer of 2013, at a cozy bar in New Jersey. Victoria, always one to speak her mind, couldn't resist poking fun at Matt's choice of shorts. Little did she know, that playful banter would lead to a lifetime of adventures together. After a chance encounter that fateful night, Matt surprised Victoria on her birthday by traveling all the way from Brooklyn to be with her and her friends. From that moment on, they were inseparable. While Victoria tried to play hard to get, her heart was already won.

Our Family Life

Our journey has been full of exciting milestones. We bought our first home in 2017, and that's when Brody, our beloved dog, joined our family. He's more than just a pet; he's a cherished member of our pack and even played a role in our wedding, strutting down the aisle in his tuxedo. We have recently relocated closer to our families, cherishing every moment spent with our loved ones. Family means everything to us, and we can't wait to expand ours.

Our Qualities

Victoria is known for her caring, supportive nature and her unique ability to comfort others. Matt is funny, outgoing, and loves to bring laughter into any situation. We both share a love for family, creativity, and making every moment count.

About Matt

Matt shares a special bond with his dog, Brody, who absolutely adores the beach. One cherished memory captures Matt's, as he stands next to a giant quartz gem at a gemstone show. There's also a snapshot of Brody cozily asleep on Matt, reflecting a lazy Sunday spent together. Brody's childlike antics shine through, from snuggling under the covers to his playful involvement in Matt's activities.

But there's also a shared love for creativity, as they attend a glass blowing class for a birthday celebration. The occasion was made even more special as they all sported berets to inspire their artistic spirits, creating unique pieces. Matt's craftsmanship led to a beautiful drinking glass, showcasing his creative talents.

Matt's playful side comes to life when he's caught playing with our niece, Ava. Their imaginations run wild as they pretend to be part of a loud rock band.

Finally, the family aspect of Matt's life is beautifully showcased when they celebrate his grandma's 95th birthday. It's a touching moment, knowing that she eventually reaches the remarkable age of 100. Together with the entire family, they take her to brunch to commemorate this milestone. These snippets of Matt's life paint a vivid picture of his love for family, creativity, and his furry best friend, Brody.

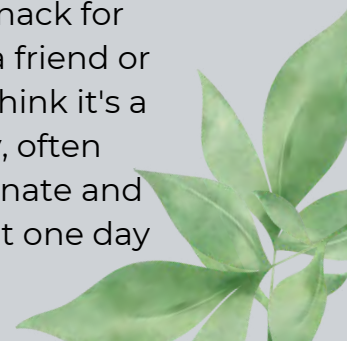

About Victoria

Victoria possesses the qualities that will make her an exceptional mother. Her kindness, patience, and teaching skills are admirable. I was captivated by her delightful sense of humor and strong work ethic, traits I have no doubt she will pass down to our child. Additionally, Victoria has an uncanny knack for newborn care. It's almost like she has a sixth sense for it. Whenever a friend or family member announces their pregnancy, I slyly inquire, "Do you think it's a boy or a girl?" Remarkably, Victoria consistently guesses correctly, often before the parents even confirm the gender. Victoria is a compassionate and loving person, and I am proud to call her my wife. I am confident that one day she will make an extraordinary mother as well.

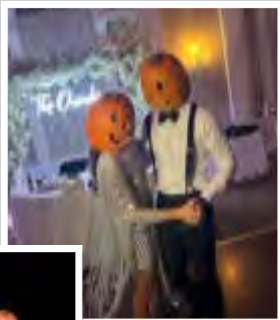

This is us...

"We wanted to capture more than just moments; we wanted to show you our personalities and who we are."

Having a wedding in October is like stepping into a magical world where love and festivities collide! We kicked off our journey with some engagement photos that were equal parts creepy and fun – think haunted house and quirky props galore.

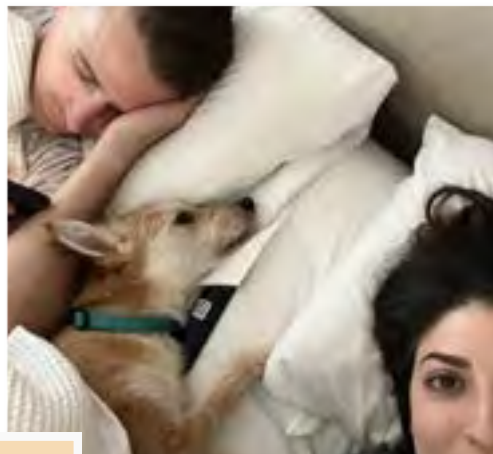

But when it came to the big day, we took the festive spirit to a whole new level.

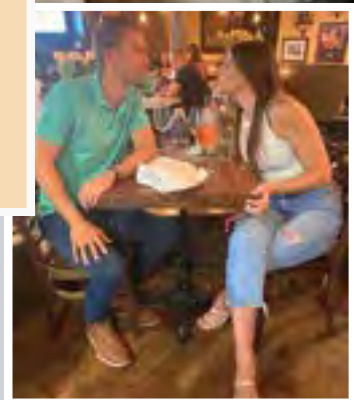

Imagine this: at our reception, everyone wholeheartedly embraced the enchanting autumn season, hitting the dance floor with pumpkins atop their heads! It was a truly remarkable sight.

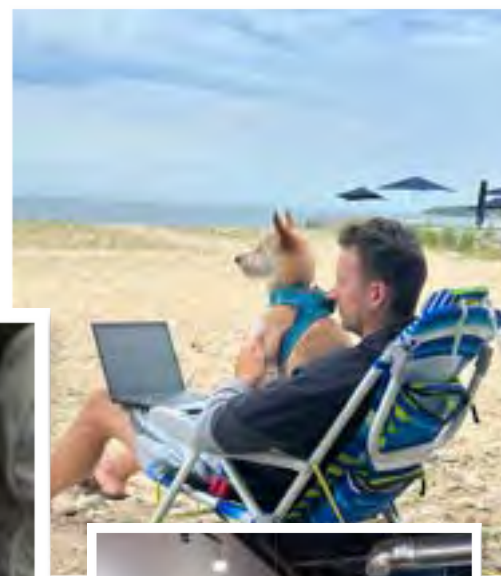

October weddings are all about embracing the charming quirks and delightful spookiness of the season, and ours was a celebration that will forever be etched in our memories as a playful and pumpkin-filled delight!

Thousand Words"*

Our Lifestyle

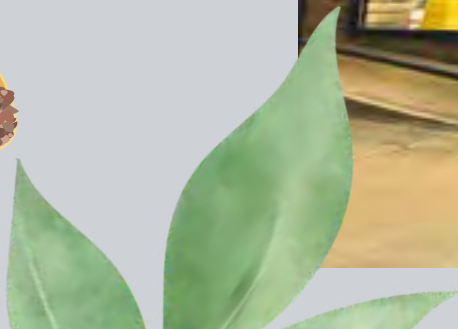

We cherish every season, spending our summers at the beach, playing golf together, and enjoying outdoor activities. In the winter, you'll find us hitting the slopes or simply snuggling up on the couch watching football. Matt is a talented furniture builder, and Victoria is passionate about her jewelry design business and gardening. We can't wait to share our hobbies and creativity with your child.

TACO BELL

Our favorite tradition is having Taco Bell for all of life's milestones. After we got engaged, we went right to Taco
Bell. We've even spent a few
Valentine's days there too!

Our Home

We recently moved to Edison, NJ, and have been busily preparing for your child's arrival. Our home is a place of warmth and love, where we've picked out the perfect shade of "Bonsai Tint" for the baby's room. It's a serene, sage-green color that we both adore.

Why Adoption

From the early days of our relationship, we both knew that adoption was our path to building a family. It's a shared passion that has only grown stronger with time.

We want to provide your child with a loving, supportive, and nurturing environment, filled with laughter, fun, and endless opportunities.

If we are blessed with a child who is a different race than ours, we intend to start integrating diversity at an early age for your child. Reading books about their heritage and backgrounds. In our family food is a symbol of coming together and we would like to instill this in your child as they grow. Showing them how to cook and prepare dishes from your backgrounds will ensure diversity in our household and our lives.

Openness

We are committed to open adoption, and we want your child to know their history and the incredible person who brought them into our lives. Our vision includes regular updates, photos, emails, and visits, tailored to what you're comfortable with. We respect your wishes and are excited to share your child's growth and milestones with you.

Our Promise

We promise to raise your child in a loving, nurturing environment, rooted in our Catholic faith. We'll encourage them to explore their heritage, embrace diversity, and savor the joy of coming together over delicious meals, just as we do in our family. Your child will always know your love and the story of their birth.

What sets us apart from the other families...

Growing up in an era before cell phones and the internet dominated our lives, we spent our days outdoors, playing with friends and creating lasting memories. We want to provide your child with the same kind of childhood, where adventures are had outside, and bonds are formed through shared experiences.

Our hearts are open wide, ready to welcome your child into our family with open arms and endless love. We can't wait to embark on this journey together, building a lifetime of cherished memories and experiences.

Thank you for considering us as potential parents for your precious child. We hope to meet you soon and share our lives, dreams, and laughter.

A little message

Dear Birth Mom,

We hope this letter finds you well. We want to thank you for your brave decision. We understand its significance.

Your child will be loved immensely in our family. We are Matt and Victoria, a couple who fell in love in 2013. We've created a warm, loving home, and family is essential to us. Our dog, Brody, is excited to welcome a new family member.

We're committed to open adoption, keeping you involved in your child's life. We have various interests and hobbies to share with your child, celebrating their uniqueness.

Adoption, to us, means embracing heritage and identity. We promise to raise your child in our Catholic faith with love, respect, and empathy.

Your child's future will be full of opportunities, support, and love. We respect and admire your decision. We hope to meet you and start this journey together, centered on love, trust, and respect. Your child's happiness is our priority.

Warm wishes,
Matt and Victoria
