

How we met...

We met twelve years ago online. It was an instant connection of shared faith, family values, attraction and goals. Our relationship progressed quickly with frequent texting, phone calls, and visits.

It felt as if we had known each other our whole lives. From the start of our relationship there was a deep sense of peace and love.

The blending of our family was natural with our children bonding easily as siblings.

With the Lord's guidance our relationship bloomed into marriage. We married in the Bahamas surrounded by our family and friends!

Why Adoption...

Adoption has been a positive experience for our immediate and extended families. Hannah learned in her early teens that pregnancy was not a safe option for her. We joyfully welcome adoption as the way to complete our family!

Fifteen years ago, Hannah, as a single mom, adopted Titus as a newborn. It was one of the best days of Hannah's life. The joy and love that he has brought into our lives is indescribable. We are humbled and grateful for the birth mother's self-lessness by entrusting our family to raise Titus.

Hannah's sisters Heather and Cassy are adopted. Heather was adopted from South America as a baby and Cassy was adopted from Foster Care as a teen. Hannah and her sisters share a close bond. Feeling they were all meant to be together as a family.

Hannah and Reynaldo adopted each other's children. We believe that family is not created by genetics but by the love and respect we share. We believe the Lord gathered us together to create a loving and supportive family.

Adoption Day!

Meet Hannah...

Occupation: Rehabilitation Counselor

Education: Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling.

Fun Fact: Hannah is one of 5 siblings

Growing up in a big family, Hannah always wanted lots of kids. She loves watching a good Jane Austin movie, playing UNO with her kids, and snuggling with her fur baby, Peppy. Her greatest joy is watching her children grow up and thrive as they create their own paths in life.

She loves to make home-made Chicken Empanadas, and she would watch "Sense and Sensibility" every day. She always has a book ready to read on her night stand.

What Reynaldo loves about Hannah.

I love her fun loving nature. She is a very giving and nurturing person. She is the glue that holds our family together.

 She brings me unexplainable peace!

In Her Own Words...

As long as, I can remember I wanted to be a mom. As a little girl, I loved all things baby dolls, playing house, and dreamed of the day I would marry and start a family.

I have spent most of my career as a counselor working with individuals with development and physical disabilities. My job is flexible, and I will be able to take time off for bonding with our new child as well as reduce my hours to part time to provide the attention and care a young child needs.

In my free time, I love to read, play the piano, crotchet, swim, bake, attend church, pray, study the Bible and spend time with my family.

I grew up in Michigan but lived in South America and South Korea mingled throughout my life. This created an interesting childhood and positively shaped me into the woman I am today.

I love being a mom and Aunt. Spending time with my kids is my favorite part of the week whether it is playing a game together, making home-made pizza, traveling, or simply chilling watching a movie. I love to hear their laughter, their silly antics, and the conversations that bring us all together.

Meet Reynaldo...

Occupation: Sub-Utility Field Supervisor

Fun Fact: Rey grew up in the Bahamas

Reynaldo has a strong work ethic and loves his job. He, also, loves coming home each day to spend time with the family and our fur baby, Peppy.

His favorite days involve a backyard BBQ with a Dr. Pepper in hand or catching a Pittsburg Steelers game or winning a round of Caribbean Dominos.

What Hannah loves about Rey....

Rey is my steady rock. He is quick to offer a word of encouragement or a prayer.
He is a hard working man and a loyal partner. He loves being silly with our children, nieces and nephews.
Hove his dry humor and his giving

I love his dry humor and his giving personality.

In His Own Words...

I grew up in the Bahamas in a close-knit family where faith, hard work, and family was the focus of my childhood. From early childhood into adulthood, I traveled frequently to the US for work and vacations. For me, the American and Bahamian cultures were intertwined most of my life.

Prior to moving to the US, I worked at the Phone Company in the Bahamas. I held various jobs at the Phone Company--- both in outside plant construction and outside plant engineering including supervisory roles.

In my free time, I like to spend time with my family, attending church, praying, studying the Bible, watching football, playing video games, grilling, and watching WWII movies.

I love being a dad. I am excited to welcome a child into my life to love and help them achieve their dreams!

Home Is Where the Heart Is...

play/jump facilities, sport teams, water parks and beaches.

We have a large five-bedroom home with lots of room for our children to play and spend time as a family. We have a bedroom close to ours for the nursery that we will customize based on the child who joins our family.

Meet Our Children...

Ethan is our oldest child. He is 21 years old. Ethan lives at home with us and works as a donation attendant full time.

Ethan is a kind and hard working young man. He is usually the first to offer to help.

He loves video games, Asian noodles, and hanging out with his siblings and friends!

Emma is our middle child. She is 18 years old and just graduated from High School.

She is outgoing and never meets a stranger. She is athletic and girly at the same time.

She is attending college and living in the dorms. She is studying to become a cosmetologist.

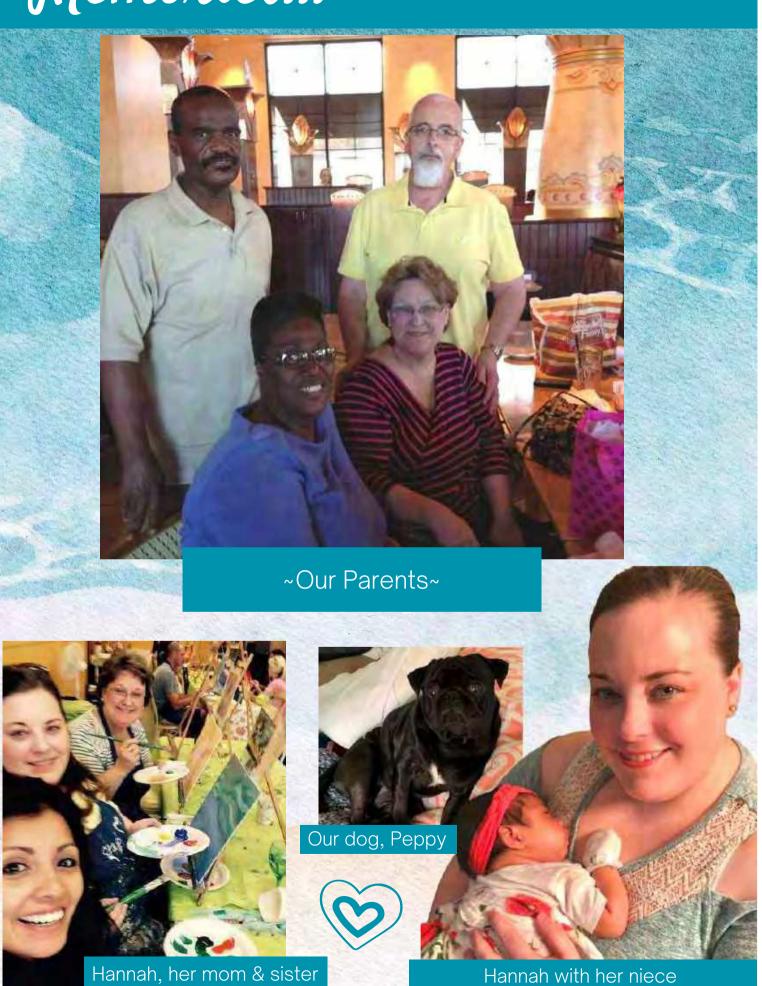

Titus is our youngest child. He is 15 years old. He is in the 9th grade. Hannah's mom homeschools Titus remotely. Titus is excelling.

He is a sweet and loving young man. He is a bit shy and sensitive but very artistic.

Titus loves playing video games with Ethan, science experiments, and drawing cartoon characters.

Our children have asked for a baby brother or sister for a long time. They have many younger cousins that they are playful, kind and loving with. They are looking forward to welcoming a child into our family. They will be good role models and love their new sibling unconditionally.

Memories...

They love to swim!
