

BRANDON

AND

Jessica

hello

WE ARE BRANDON AND JESSICA

We believe you are incredible because of your decision to pursue adoption for your child. We are grateful you are considering us and look forward to connecting with you so we can learn more about each other and the hopes and dreams you have for your little one. As you can probably tell, we are full of love and light and really feel we are destined to share it! We are incredibly excited and blessed to be parents and look forward to adopting a child to add to the beauty and goodness in the world. Our child will know of your bravery and selfless act of pure love that brought us together and made us a family.

A little bit about us, we love to laugh, dream big and grow together. We feel humbled to share this journey and can't wait to welcome a little one into our hearts and home.

Jessica

A B O U T M E

I was raised in Nebraska, but love to travel.

My favorite place is Okinawa, Japan.

Family is the most important thing in my life. I enjoy DIY projects, decorating, and staying active with activities like yoga and swimming. I've been a stay-at-home mom for 20 years and my goal is to create happy memories for my family.

ABOUT BRANDON IN JESSICA'S WORDS

"I AM HIS ABSOLUTE

biggest fan!"

Brandon, is a devoted, generous, loving, and supportive husband and father. He has a great sense of humor and is quick-witted, but also level-headed when needed. He enjoys music, adventure, trivia and is a very talented guitarist and creative writer. He loves all things family and gives 110% all the time. He's the absolute best and I am truly his biggest fan!

I hail from the sunny state of Arizona, but when it comes to adventure, I'm up for anything! From Okinawa, Japan to San Antonio, Texas, I've explored all sorts of terrain with activities like hiking, running, snorkelling, and even cave diving!

When it comes to entertainment, my heart beats for music and movies. I'm a musical chameleon, adapting to any genre that suits my mood. I'm totally in sync with music and often match it to my surroundings. I'm a jack of all trades, playing guitar and even a little piano. Movies are my childhood pals, and even now, I find myself watching them with adult eyes and a newfound appreciation. They never let me down and always bring those warm fuzzy feelings. I'm super excited to share this love with our kiddos, hoping to keep the tradition alive, just like how my family introduced me to these passions!

FUN FACTS

- I play guitar.
- I have a screenwriting degree.
- I enjoy running and playing basketball.
- I am a giant kid at heart!

our story

WE ARE INSEPARABLE ...

It's been that way since we met in March 2004. We have been together 18 years and married for the last 15 years. A chance meeting and compliment blossomed into a whirlwind love story that continues to thrive after all of this time. We live to make each other laugh and spend a lot of quality time together. We are a team and balance each other out. We are truly best friends!

why adoption?

ADOPTION HAS ALWAYS BEEN ON OUR HEARTS!

It all began with Jessica's brave decision to choose open adoption for her son while still in high school - a true act of love that still warms our hearts to this day. From that moment on, adoption became a crucial part of our family's DNA. We're big believers in sharing the love and support we have with an expectant mama and her baby. Our family values the preciousness of life and is dedicated to providing a bright future for a child in need of a loving home. We know that a solid foundation in family is the key to a fulfilling and happy life, and we're committed to giving that to a child who might not have had the same chance otherwise.

HOME SWEET HOME

OUR FAMILY

We have five amazing kids and 3 dogs. There is always something to do and fun to be had.

As a family, we eat dinner together at the table every night, recount our day, reminiscing and laughing a lot. We love to have tournaments whether it be a quick game of UNO or tetherball. We all have a fun loving competitive spirit which adds to the fun.

We are very excited to share the love of our big family and look forward to trips to our local park, teaching them how to swim in our pool and traveling- especially to Disneyland.

We work hard together to maintain our family and make all major decisions as a team. We believe family is everything and communication is key.

Meet our Pets

OUR FURRY FRIENDS

We have 1 French bull dog, 1 sheepadoodle and 1 English bulldog. Just like our kids, our pets have our whole hearts. Each pet has their favorite kid and they have quite the personalities. They are wonderful and compassionate companions. Gentle and playful, but also nap every day at 1pm.

OUR TRADITIONS

Traditions are important- they help keep us close and ground us in life. We have started many things in our family like the “birthday fairy” who visits and decorates during nap time on your birthday when you’re young or overnight before your birthday when you’re older. We love to go to celebrate the holidays big with Christmas being the biggest for traditions. At Christmas we see a lot of light shows, make treats and goodies, watch holiday movies and make gingerbread houses to name a few. At Halloween, we carve pumpkins, get dressed up, go trick or treating, get the portable projector out and watch “Hocus Pocus” on the garage door while we hand out candy and hang out with the neighbors. For the 4th of July we go to Nebraska and hang out with Jessica’s family lighting off fireworks for a week, go to our favorite zoo and have a lot of family meals and get together. There are just so many things we love to do and not enough room to share them all.

WE LOVE TO TRAVEL

We love to be together and make memories whether that be at home or abroad. We are in a position where we can pick up and go and have plans to travel around the world from future cruises, European vacations and stateside destinations. We LOVE Disney and have been three times in the last nine months! We visit Jessica's family in Nebraska every year and plan on taking a family vacation to Okinawa where we met so the kids can see where our epic love story began.

OUR FAVORITE PLACE EVER : DISNEYLAND & OKINAWA, JAPAN
WEIRDEST FOOD WE'VE HAD : BLOWFISH IN OKINAWA, JAPAN
GREATEST EXPERIENCE : SNORKELING IN JAPAN

A LETTER

To You,

We promise to provide a safe, stable nurturing environment where your child is free to discover and explore the world around them. They will always be surrounded by love, laughter and affection. We will encourage them to be their best, listen to them and help them when things are tough.

We will guide them the best we can so they can find themselves and fulfillment in life. We promise to share their story with them so that they know who they are and how deeply they are loved. We know that this decision isn't made lightly on your behalf. We will respect any level of involvement you wish to have. We hope to share this journey with you and give you peace with your decision. Sending BIG hugs and positive vibes from all of us always.

Thank you

WE APPRECIATE YOU TAKING THE TIME TO LOOK AT OUR PROFILE!

It's an honor to be considered to love and protect your little one. It is our sincere hope to get to know more about you and to share your hopes and dreams for your child. We would love to foster a long-lasting relationship while sharing the love and joy that your sacrifice will bring to the world and to our lives. We hope to hear from you soon!

with love
