

ASHTON & JOSH

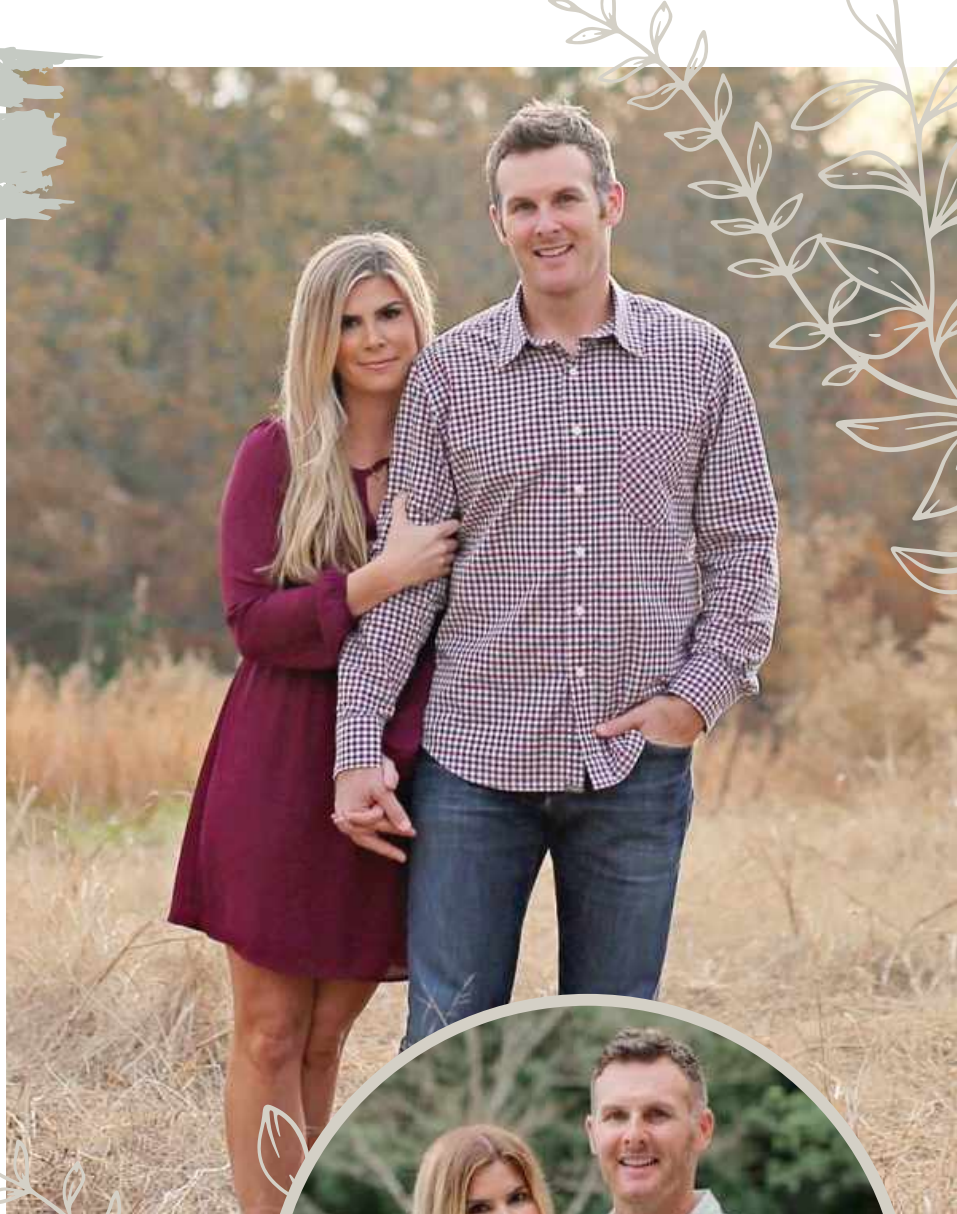

Hi There!

We are Josh and Ashton! Thank you for making this brave decision in choosing life. We are honored and humbled that you would consider us as adoptive parents.

You are already so loved and appreciated by us for being on this difficult journey, and we are praying for you and your little one.

As you get to know our family through this book, our hope is that you sense the unconditional love, dedication, and joy our family shares together. While we have been blessed with four amazing sons, our hearts desire is to complete our family with a daughter. As joyful as this is for us, we cannot imagine the challenges you are facing in this process, and we are already inspired by your bravery. We would love to come alongside you on this journey. We pray for peace and comfort as you make this decision.

A FEW OF OUR FAVORITE THINGS

- TRAVELING WITH FAMILY AND FRIENDS
- WATCHING OUR KIDS EXCEL IN THEIR PASSIONS
- FAMILY TRADITIONS
- SLOW MORNINGS SNUGGLING ON THE COUCH
- LAUGHTER AND LIVING LIFE TO THE FULLEST

Josh and I grew up in the same neighborhood and our families were always friends. During my Junior year away at college, we got the tragic news that my mom was diagnosed with breast cancer. Once Josh heard the news, he reached out and he supported me through that difficult season. At that time, Josh was playing college baseball and we lived 6 hours apart. Although our friendship was long distance through phone calls, we both knew there was something special.

Our friendship quickly turned into something greater after we finally had our first date and the rest is history! Thankfully, my mom beat cancer and has been with our growing family every step of the way. Josh and I just celebrated our 12th wedding anniversary and there is nothing better than marrying your best friend. Our greatest joy has been raising our four boys and living out our dream of having a big family. We love laughing together, being outdoors, game nights, cheering on our favorite sports teams, snuggling on the couch, sipping coffee, late night milkshakes and Sunday morning donuts!

IT MAY NOT ALWAYS BE PERFECT OR COME EASY, BUT IT IS ALWAYS WORTH IT!

ALL ABOUT

Ashton

A NOTE FROM JOSH
Ashton is the most beautiful, caring, patient, genuine, and maternal woman I know. She is living out her dream as a dedicated stay-at-home mom. She loves our kids with her whole heart and nothing makes her more proud. Ashton was raised in the South and is the epitome of southern hospitality. She is a natural hostess and loves to entertain her family and friends. One thing that attracted me to Ashton was her ability to make any event fun with her witty sense of humor and love for life! Her energy and joy make my darkest days brighter. She is a loyal friend, a supportive partner, and is always serving others. She is the calm to our crazy and the glue that holds us together. Ashton has prayed about adoption for years and has dreamed of raising a daughter. She is so ready to add another baby to our crew and share that special bond with her little girl.
