

Gephie and Eli

Dear Potential Birth Parents,

We are Sephie and Eli. Our paths first crossed at a weekend getaway through mutual friends. It took a year for me, Eli, to pluck up the courage to ask Sephie out, but from then on, our love story unfolded beautifully. Sephie, with her radiant beauty, fun spirit, and ambitious vibe, was irresistible. She saw in me a mix of humor, success, and a comforting sense of safety. We were like two peas in a pod, craving each other's company at every turn.

Our bond deepened through shared adventures, from bowling to exploring new activities. It seemed we just loved being together, no matter what we were doing. A special memory that still shines brightly is a boardwalk fair where we bought matching bracelets, tokens we still wear to this day. That first summer felt like we were living our own romantic comedy, filled with laughter, love, and the creation of an unbreakable bond. We knew almost instantly after we started dating, that we'd end up spending our lives together. After two years of this magical journey, we decided to get married. It's this deep love and respect for each other that we wish to extend to our future family. We appreciate you taking the time to learn more about us...

Adventure AWAITS

Our adventurous spirits have led us to wonderful places including the Dominican Republic. We chose an off-season time, ensuring a quiet, private experience. There, we discovered a charming boutique hotel adjacent to a golf course. We rode horseback through the jungles, reaching the tops of mountains and marveling at the lush scenery. It was here that Sephie found a newfound love for the beach, and we embarked on an off-road ATV adventure. We also enjoyed the local cuisine and participated in the hotel's lively dance parties.

Sephie...

From the moment I first saw Sephie, she was like a burst of vibrant colors in a gray world. Her strength and ambition struck me immediately - it was like she had a magnetic field around her, pulling me in. Her beauty, both inside and out, is striking, but it's her unwavering support and loyalty that makes her truly exceptional. It's her laughter that fills our home and her resilience that inspires me daily.

Outside of her exciting career in interior design, she has a deep love for outdoor activities. There's nothing quite like the freedom of horseback riding, the challenge of a golf game, or the exhilaration of a good run. Fashion is her creative outlet - it's a way of expressing her personality and mood.

She brings fun and adventure into our lives, and I am beyond grateful to call her my wife. I couldn't imagine embarking on this journey of parenthood with anyone else.

Eli...

Eli came into my life as a breath of fresh air. His combination of humor, success, and security was a magnet to me. His compassionate spirit and generous heart are things I fell for almost instantly. He is a man who makes it a point to make our home a sanctuary of love and comfort. His dedication to our relationship and future family is apparent in all that he does. He has a knack for creating delicious meals, turning the everyday into an event.

When Eli is not deep in the world of finance, you can usually find him embracing nature through birdwatching, as it brings a sense of peace and discovery. He is also passionate about design and art, which fuels his creativity. As a music enthusiast, he finds joy in immersing himself in different genres and rhythms, often leading to spontaneous dance sessions in the kitchen.

Eli's presence is calming, his love is profound, and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to call him my partner. I look forward to the joys and challenges of parenthood that we will face together.

Home Sweet Home

Our home is warm and inviting. We live in a beautiful space that is waiting to welcome a little more love. We keep a cozy home with an inviting front and a great backyard. Perfect for children to run around and play. Our home is on a quiet block with nice neighbors.

A few short min away we have farms to visit and parks to play. During the holiday we welcome friends and family into our home. It's wonderful to feel a home filled with love and joy.

Kids need love, love and more love. We believe children flourish when they are loved. As parents we will ensure a child is always safe and protected. They will learn to be kind and giving to others.

Together we learn through experiences that grow their spirit and mind.

We will instill a love for being open to growing their mind and trying new things.

The world is their playground, children should travel often and see the beauties of the world. We can't wait to watch a little face smile with wonder.

Our biggest hope is to become parents and love a child for the rest of our lives. Our promise is to make a child happy.

Our Parenting Style...

Family IS EVERYTHING

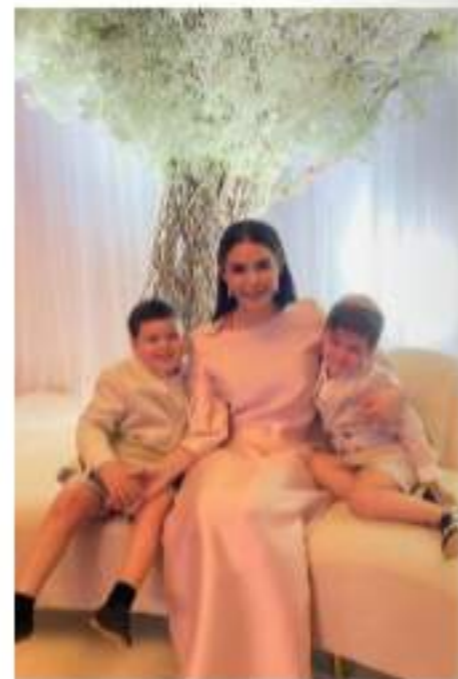

Sephie's parents, Alex and Linda, have been pillars of love and support for the past 34 years. Alex, a successful real estate professional, is a veritable fountain of knowledge. His wisdom extends beyond the professional world and into every nook and cranny of life's curiosities, making him a beloved storyteller among his grandchildren. Linda, a devoted homemaker, radiates warmth and unconditional love. Her protective nature is a testament to her fierce love for her children. She epitomizes the role of a mother - caring, gentle, yet formidable in her devotion to her family. Their love story, longevity of marriage, and the values they embody inspire us in our own journey as future parents. Sephie has 5 siblings and many nieces and nephews who keep our lives busy and always exciting! Everyone is so excited to welcome another member to the family.

LIVE Laugh LOVE

Eli's parents, David and Smadar, have shared a beautiful marriage spanning over 32 years. David, is the epitome of selflessness and generosity. He is an avid music lover, he often fills their home with song. Smadar, a dedicated homemaker, is renowned for her culinary skills. Her dishes are a heartfelt expression of her love and care for her family and friends. Her welcoming nature shines through in the warmth she exudes and her constant readiness to serve a hot meal to anyone who walks through their door. Their marriage, the values they've instilled, and their unique qualities serve as a guiding beacon for us as we embark on our own parenting journey. They are so excited to become grandparents. Eli has six siblings. We are so lucky to have such a wonderful extended family.

this is US

We may not have children of our own yet, but we're no strangers to the joys and responsibilities of childcare. Our nieces and nephews play a big part in our lives. They often join us on our weekend adventures, whether it's a trip to a nearby park, a fun outing to the petting zoo, or simply exploring our neighborhood.

Thank you so much for taking the time to read our profile. We hope that it has given you a glimpse into our lives and has shown you the love that we and our families have to share with a child. Furthermore, we hope it demonstrates our ability to provide a loving, caring supportive, nurturing, and stable, environment. We both were brought up in warm caring homes and have looked forward ever since to replicate the wonderful upbringing we experienced for the next generation.

We are blessed to have our nieces and nephews in our lives. Many times, we have the kids sleep over or we move into our siblings' homes for extended periods while they are on vacation or away on business. We take them ice skating create contests, games, projects, and charts, and give them a wholesome, happy, and healthy change of pace.

We have so much respect for your decision to consider adoption for this child. We and our family are so excited to open our hearts and our home to a child through adoption and cannot wait and pray for that day to come. Please know that any child who joins our family will be loved abundantly and unconditionally. They will sincerely be given every opportunity in life to thrive, pursue their dreams, and reach for the stars.

Warmest Regards,
Sephie and Eli
