

Megan & George

Nice to Meet You

You don't know us yet, but we've been praying for you for quite some time. Our names are George and Megan, and we are incredibly grateful that you're taking the time to read our letter and learn more about us. As we sit down to write this, our hearts are full of emotion – gratitude, hope, and deep respect for you and the journey you're on. We can only imagine the strength and courage it takes to consider an adoption plan for your child. Please know that we admire you more than words can express.

We want what is best for your baby – just as you do. Whether or not you ultimately choose adoption, we honor your decision and your selfless love. If our paths do align, we would be absolutely overjoyed and honored to meet you, walk beside you, and welcome your child into our lives with unconditional love.

About Us

We're thrilled you're interested in learning more about our family. We live a life filled with love, laughter, and meaningful moments, and we can't wait to share that with another child. Parenting is the greatest joy and responsibility of our lives. We are ready to expand our family and pour even more love into another child's life.

Adoption has already played a profound role in our lives – in more ways than one.

George's adoption story began when he was just a teenager. He was raised in a low-income household as the youngest of five siblings. At the age of 15, George was adopted by his oldest brother, who had joined the military to create a better life for his family. That summer visit turned into a lifelong change, and George's adoption opened the door to a future full of opportunity, stability, and growth. It gave him the foundation to become the person he is today – a devoted husband, father, and coach. Without adoption, his life would have looked very different.

In 2017, adoption blessed us again with our daughter, Madison. She was born at just 31 weeks, weighing only 2 lbs. 11 oz., and spent a month in the NICU. We were by her side every day, and we are so proud of the strong, joyful little girl she has become. Madison's birth mother continues to be a cherished part of our lives. We talk often to celebrate milestones and birthdays. Her decision to choose us was the greatest gift we've ever received, and we will be forever grateful.

Family Life

We love spending time together as a family. Whether it's family game nights, beach days, theme park adventures, or cozy movie nights with buttered popcorn (Madison's favorite), we enjoy every moment we get to share. George coaches both football and baseball, and Madison is a regular on the sidelines cheering on the team – she proudly calls herself the assistant coach! We love being outdoors, cooking together in the kitchen, and recently started an annual tradition of taking family cruises – something we now eagerly look forward to each year.

Our Home

We live in a cozy three-bedroom home on a quiet island on the east coast of Florida. Our neighborhood is friendly, family-oriented, and surrounded by nature. We often see dolphins and manatees in the canals, and the nearby parks offer splash pads, festivals, and plenty of room to play. Our home is filled with warmth and joy, and we can't wait to share it with another child.

Our Loved Ones

Family is at the heart of our lives. We are surrounded by a loving, supportive circle of relatives who are all thrilled about our plans to grow our family.

George is the youngest of five and has an especially close bond with the brother who adopted him. His nieces and nephews feel more like siblings, and every Christmas, the entire family gathers in Virginia for a joyful reunion.

Megan is the oldest of three and has a very close relationship with her identical twin sister – they talk daily! Her younger sister lives nearby and is always happy to dog-sit or join in family dinners. Megan's extended family all live within an hour, which means holidays and birthdays are filled with cousins, laughter, and lots of home-cooked food.

Our family pets – Bella and Milo – also play a big role in our home. They're affectionate, patient, and love snuggling up with Madison or joining us on walks and outdoor adventures.

Our Promise

We want to say – from the bottom of our hearts – thank you for considering us. We know that the decision you are facing is deeply personal and likely overwhelming. If you decide to make an adoption plan, and choose us to be your child's parents, please know that we will cherish that gift every single day.

We promise to:

- Love your child unconditionally and wholeheartedly.
- Create a home filled with security, laughter, and opportunity.
- Celebrate their story, including their birth family, from the very beginning.
- Honor whatever level of openness and contact you are most comfortable with.
- Keep you updated with letters, photos, and milestones if you wish.

Most importantly, we will raise your child to know they are loved deeply – by both us and you.

You are in our prayers daily – for peace, clarity, and strength – no matter what decision you make. We would be honored to share more with you if you'd like to take the next step in getting to know us.

With love, respect, and gratitude,

George , Megan , and Madison
