

West & Jessica

Hello!

WE ARE WEST & JESSICA

West and I are a loving and caring couple. Our life is filled with laughter, joy, and an amazing community.

While our hearts are full of love, our family is not yet complete. We're excited to share more of our story with you as we seek to grow our family through adoption.

We want you to know how much we admire you for considering adoption. We are ready to offer our unconditional love and a wonderful life to a baby, and a lifetime of support to you. We would be honored if you would consider us to be part of this journey with you.

Love, Jessica & West

Our Story

OUR BEGINNING

We became friends in middle school. After college, my job took me to the same city as West, and our friendship quickly became a lifelong partnership. In 2017 when West asked me to marry him, it was an easy and immediate YES. Eight years later, we are still saying yes to each other every single day.

TODAY

We have two children, but adoption has always been a part of our hopes for our family, and infertility ultimately brought us to begin this journey. Our children are extremely nurturing and welcoming, and are so excited at the idea of another sibling. We are so ready to open both our hearts and home to another baby and give them the best life imaginable.

About West

West is my favorite person in the world and the best father a kid could ask for. He is so dependable and involved in our kid's lives. Whether it's helping with homework, making bedtimes fun, or playing dress up, he does it all because he loves children (and they love him).

He is a very successful Engineer who loves to play golf, go to sporting events, and travel.

West is the rock for our family. He provides such a secure and loving environment. He has a huge heart, and has so much love to share with another child. I hope you get the chance to meet him soon!

About Jessica

Jessica is the type of mom every child wants. She fills our home with laughter and is behind every dance party in the kitchen and backyard campout.

Jessica works from home, giving her the flexibility to be extremely involved in many areas of our lives.

Her energy is contagious, whether she's playing tennis, organizing school and community events, or enjoying a family game night. She finds beauty and joy in the everyday, and she shares that with everyone around her.

Jessica is ready to give a child everything. She's a wonderful mother and human being, and I'm so excited to share our lives and our love with another child.

Our Family

We are blessed to have close and supportive parents who are as excited as we are to welcome another child into our lives.

Jessica's parents live 10 minutes away. They are always here to offer a helping hand, share or prepare a meal, or simply enjoy time with family. West's mom lives less than an hour away. Her home is always filled with warmth, laughter, and delicious food.

Both sides are eager for us to grow our family, promising a lifetime of love, laughter, endless opportunities, and shared memories. They are ready to open their arms and hearts to another child, creating a safe and nurturing environment filled with unconditional love.

Our Promise

We believe that every child deserves a family filled with love, safety, and opportunity, and we promise to provide that for your child. We are committed to creating a home where kindness and joy will always be present. We enjoy life to the fullest, and we can't wait to share memorable experiences with this baby throughout their life.

We promise that we will raise your child with respect, care, and unconditional love. We will provide a safe environment where they feel valued and supported. We will always encourage them to follow their dreams.

We also want you to know that we deeply respect the brave and selfless decision you are making. Your child will grow up knowing how much you love them. We are open to maintaining a relationship that feels comfortable to you, and will always speak of you with the utmost respect and gratitude.

Our hearts are wide open to this baby, and we promise to love and care for them with all that we have. Thank you for considering us to be a part of your journey. We are forever grateful for the opportunity to share in this experience.

With love and gratitude,

West & Jessica
