

Natalia & Carlos

Hi there, and thank you for taking the time to learn about us.

We've been praying for you—praying that you feel peace and strength as you navigate this journey. We admire your courage and want you to know how deeply grateful we are for the chance to share a little of our story with you.

We love people, cherish the simple things in life, and believe that true joy is found in faith, family, and love. Welcoming a child into our home is the greatest gift we could imagine, and we are ready to offer all the love, care, and security we have to give.

Thank you again for considering us.

Our story

From the very first moment we met, we knew there was something special between us. Over time, our bond grew into a deep friendship that blossomed into a lifelong commitment. We've been inseparable ever since—best friends, partners, and now, a family anchored in love and faith.

We cherish doing life together—whether it's serving our community, sharing our blessings, or simply enjoying the everyday moments. We see each day as a gift, and we strive to live intentionally, with joy and gratitude in our hearts.

Our Heart for Family

Family means everything to us. We are beyond thankful for the opportunity to grow not only in number but also in wisdom, grace, and unconditional love.

To welcome a child into our home is the greatest honor and the most precious gift we could ever receive.

Our commitment is simple and unwavering: to provide a home filled with love, safety, and belonging. We will do everything we can to ensure that your child feels deeply loved, cherished, and secure. We believe that every child is a unique blessing, and we are ready to walk alongside them in every season of life—celebrating their joys, supporting them through challenges, and nurturing them with all our hearts.

A Note from Natalia

I am so thankful that I can say that Carlos is my husband, because he is the most amazing man that I know. He has very meaningful testimonies that inspire me so deeply everyday. I fell in love with him when I saw his servant heart; he is very proactive and is always ready to serve, no matter what. I love to share my life with him because he is always excited to live life. He is always up to do new things, to create and to share. I am sure he will be the best father I have ever known because that is how he is as a husband. I am confident that our child will feel and be fully loved, protected and cared for by him.
