

Sam & Jordan

Hello!

We're Sam and Jordan,
and we're super excited to share our story with you.

Thank you so much for wanting to learn more about us.
We know you've got a lot going on and big choices to make.
We're really thankful for the loving and brave choice you're making.

Our journey has been packed with love, giggles, and fun with family- our own and the family we have acquired.
We've been together for three years, tied the knot last year,
and celebrated with our family in January.

We can't wait to grow our family!

Our Story

We connected online and appreciated the straightforwardness of our profiles; we were both seeking someone who valued stability and serious commitment without playing games. Jordan took the lead in planning our dates, offering Sam various options.

We enjoyed activities like visiting the park, attending trivia nights, and going to comedy shows. Sam realized that Jordan had passed the test when Cici and Lucy, Sam's dogs, gave their approval. After two months of dating, we officially became a couple. A year and a half later, we got engaged.

We love being together- whether it is just making dinner, watching movies, or if we are visiting a different city, listening to a band, or meeting up with friends.

Jordan grew up in a small town. He works as a Logistics Specialist for a company that manufactures automotive and appliance parts, enjoying a flexible schedule that allows him to work from home on certain days.

Samantha was born in up north, and moved to the south in fifth grade. She owns an event planning company and operates from her home.

Meet Sam

Sam is not only a dedicated wedding and event planner, but also finds joy in swimming, spending time with her family and friends, reading, watching movies, and cooking.

She loves making people laugh and does everything she can to make people happy and comfortable. She really loves to see people smile. She loves to plan outings and will always find a reason to celebrate.

Sam is a cervical and ovarian cancer survivor and is incredibly grateful to have such a wonderful village and community. She is so happy that she is cancer free and can expand her family with Jordan.

Meet Jordan

Jordan has been described as patient, funny, kind, and caring. He loves taking care of Sam, their dogs, and his family.

Jordan is dedicated to his work and loves his job. He loves walking Cici and Lucy, playing games, snowboarding, reading, and planning household projects and trips. He loves to dance and is the first one to find the good snacks at a party or on a trip.

Jordan is happy that he has family close- he has a younger sister and her husband and 2 year old nephew and parents all within 20 minutes. He is blessed with his grandparents and cousins all living less than an hour away.

Our Home

We live in South Carolina, known for its community, history, and great schools. Our home is in a neighborhood with a pool and swim team and playground. We are close to downtown, the mountains, and lakes. We get a ton of trick-or-treaters at Halloween and the community regularly has events like cookouts, movie night at the pool, and a Fourth of July parade.

We have a big back yard with deck and sunroom and a nursery.

We love our community and we can't wait to raise a child here.

Our Support System

People often think of family as the ones you're related to by blood, but now it's all about the people you choose.

Those who hype you up and make unforgettable memories. This modern take on family is all about nurturing bonds that bring warmth, understanding, and that feeling of truly belonging and love.

As parents, we believe that you should treat others how you would like to be treated. We believe that family is what you make- and those people should be a priority. We love being auntie and uncle to so many children. We are excited to provide a loving, stable, fun, and nurturing home.

We dream about good times, but also acknowledge and prepare for the hard times whenever possible. In just three years, we've already faced so much together. The preterm birth of our daughter, Scarlett, showed us that we are a wonderful team.

Scarlett was born at 25 weeks due to a grade 3 placental abruption, with no known cause. She spent her short 46 days earth side in the NICU and knew nothing but love. We have supported each other through the loss of our daughter and somehow grieved, prayed, laughed, cried, and loved each other through it. Through sorrow comes strength, and Scarlett will always be loved.

We love

- Exploring our city and the surrounding area
- Traveling
- Water- we both love swimming, the pool, boats, and beaches.
- Trying new food and new restaurants
- Going to concerts and plays- especially rock or musicals!
- Acts of service- helping our friends and our community

Sam's family

Sam's mom and dad, Deb and Darryl, live close and love spending time traveling, going to museums and historical sites, and reading.

Darryl loves to go on walks and swimming. Debbie can talk on the phone for hours and checks in with everyone. They love comedy and are very funny. Sam and her parents are very close.

When Scarlett was in the NICU, they visited her every other day and read to her and sang songs.

Sam's older brother, Karl, lives in Syracuse. Karl has influenced Sam's taste in music and can quote almost any movie.

Jordan's family

Jordan's family lives about 20 minutes away- in opposite directions.

His sister, her husband, and their son, John, are navigating toddlerhood.

Jordan's parents, Joey and Julie, love taking John to farms, museums, and anywhere else they can play and have fun.

Julie is one of six siblings and has the gift of gab. Joey is quiet like Jordan and equally calm and patient.

They visited Scarlett weekly and loved to sing her lullabies.

Julie is retired from the school district and Joey cannot wait to join her in retirement soon.

Jordan is blessed with his grandparents living less than an hour away, along with his aunt and uncle and two cousins.

Our dogs

We have two dogs, Cici and Lucy.

Cici is a Great Dane and lab mix, and Sam has had her for 12 years, since she was a puppy. Lucy is a 9 year old Spaniel mix that Sam rescued . They are both sweet and gentle -and love all of our family and love to cuddle.

They are very good with children and will be great playmates and protectors of our new little one!

Holidays & Traditions

We love holidays and reasons to celebrate with family!

Halloween Is our favorite holiday. We join friends at parties and set up lights and music while we hand out candy to the trick-or-treaters.

At Thanksgiving, we go down to Florida and spend time at the beach and Sam's parents. We love playing games on Switch, especially Monopoly.

The day before Christmas Eve, we make hot cocoa and take the dogs in the car to see holiday lights.

Christmas Eve and Christmas Day is spent with both families. Sam's family eats a traditional Ukrainian meal and Jordan's family eats chicken wings. On Christmas Day, we have lunch with Jordan's grandparents and extended family and then spend the rest of the day with Sam's parents, and our pups Cici and Lucy.

Thank You

Thank you for taking the time to read our profile.
We hope you consider us as adoptive parents for your child.

We would be happy to answer any questions you might have about us, and we look forward to getting to know you, if you desire.

You will be in our thoughts and prayers,
and we wish you all the best.

xoxo
