

BRITTNEY & DUSTIN

Hi There!

We are Brittney and Dustin! Thank you for your courage in choosing life—it's a decision we deeply respect and honor. We feel truly blessed and humbled that you would consider us to be your child's adoptive parents. Even now, you are already surrounded by our love and admiration for the strength it takes to walk this path, and we are keeping you and your little one in our prayers every day. As you get to know our family through this book, we hope you feel the love, joy, and commitment that we share so freely with one another. While we have been blessed with four incredible sons, we would love to welcome another child into our family. We understand that this is a difficult and emotional journey, and we are inspired by your courage. We would be honored to walk alongside you every step of the way, and we pray for peace, comfort, and reassurance as you make this life-changing decision.

A FEW OF OUR FAVORITE THINGS

- ★ TRAVELING WITH FAMILY AND FRIENDS
- ★ WATCHING OUR KIDS' SPORTS GAMES
- ★ ATTENDING CHURCH ON SUNDAYS
- ★ PLAYING BASKETBALL WITH OUR BOYS
- ★ HAVING A MOVIE NIGHT

Dustin and I met in high school, and from the very beginning, we knew we had something special. We stayed together through college, growing and learning alongside each other, and eventually got married young, full of excitement and dreams for our future. Our high school sweetheart story came true, and we've been blessed to build a life together that we truly love. Today, we are living our best lives as the proud parents of four amazing boys, who fill our home with so much light, laughter, and energy.

As our oldest son has recently moved out, we've learned to hold on tighter and treasure every single moment we have with our remaining boys. We love spending time together as a family—whether it's going to the beach, cheering at all of our kids' games, enjoying cozy movie nights at home, or going to church on Sundays. Every day with our boys is a gift, and we are so grateful for the life we are creating together.

She is living her dream as a devoted stay-at-home mom, pouring her whole heart into our kids and taking so much pride in everything they do. She is their biggest supporter and is always there to encourage and uplift them. Brittney loves traveling and creating fun, meaningful experiences for our family, making memories wherever we go. Her joy and positive spirit have a way of lifting me up, even on my hardest days. She is a loyal friend, an incredible partner, and someone who is always thinking of others. ## A NOTE FROM BRITTNEY

Dustin is the most loving and devoted husband and father. His kindness, discipline, and compassion show in everything he does. He leads our family with strength, humility, and integrity. As an entrepreneur, he works incredibly hard and is always willing to go out of his way to help or encourage those around him. One of the things I love most about Dustin is how genuine he is and how he makes everyone feel truly appreciated. His sense of humor keeps our home full of laughter and light, even on the busiest days. I am so thankful God chose him for me. While he has accomplished so much, being a father is what brings him the greatest joy—especially as we prepare to welcome a new baby into our family.
