

ADAM & CAITLYN

Dear Expectant Parents,

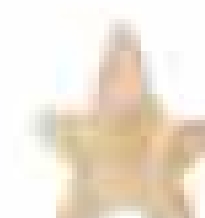

First, thank you for taking the time to learn about us. We are a Christian family who believes every life is a gift from God, and His timing is always perfect, even when the road looks different than we imagined. We believe God has a plan for each of us, and we trust that He is writing a beautiful story—one that includes you and your child.

Family is at the heart of who we are. We spend a lot of time with our extended family—celebrating birthdays, sharing Sunday dinners, and supporting one another through life's ups and downs. We believe that children thrive in a home where they feel safe, cherished, and free to be themselves, and that is the kind of home we promise to provide.

If you choose us to raise your child, please know that we will love them unconditionally. They will grow up knowing they are treasured—not only by us, but also by you. We will teach them about God's love, surround them with laughter and encouragement, and give them a childhood full of warmth, joy, and stability.

We also want you to know that we honor you and the role you will always have in your child's life. Your story will be a part of theirs from the beginning, and we will speak of you with honesty, respect, and love. More than anything, we are praying for you. For peace in your heart. For clarity in your decision. And for the beautiful life you are creating.

Our Love Story

How We Met:

Adam and Caitlyn met in the middle of the COVID-19 epidemic! Since the world was shut down, their first few dates were spent in Caitlyn's condo watching Criminal Minds and eating Chinese food. At the time, Adam and Caitlyn were living almost two hours apart, but that didn't keep them from seeing each other! Adam would even make special trips to help Caitlyn make renovations to her condo, but he really just wanted to spend time with her!

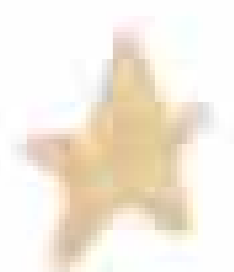

In December of 2021, Adam proposed to Caitlyn on her parent's front porch. They were married in an evening ceremony with all of their family and friends in November of 2022. Since being married, Adam and Caitlyn have rescued four dogs which they love very much! They have had the opportunity to travel to various locations including St. Croix, Ocean City, Gatlinburg, Nashville, and Ft. Lauderdale. Their dream is to visit all 50 states!

Our Adoption Journey

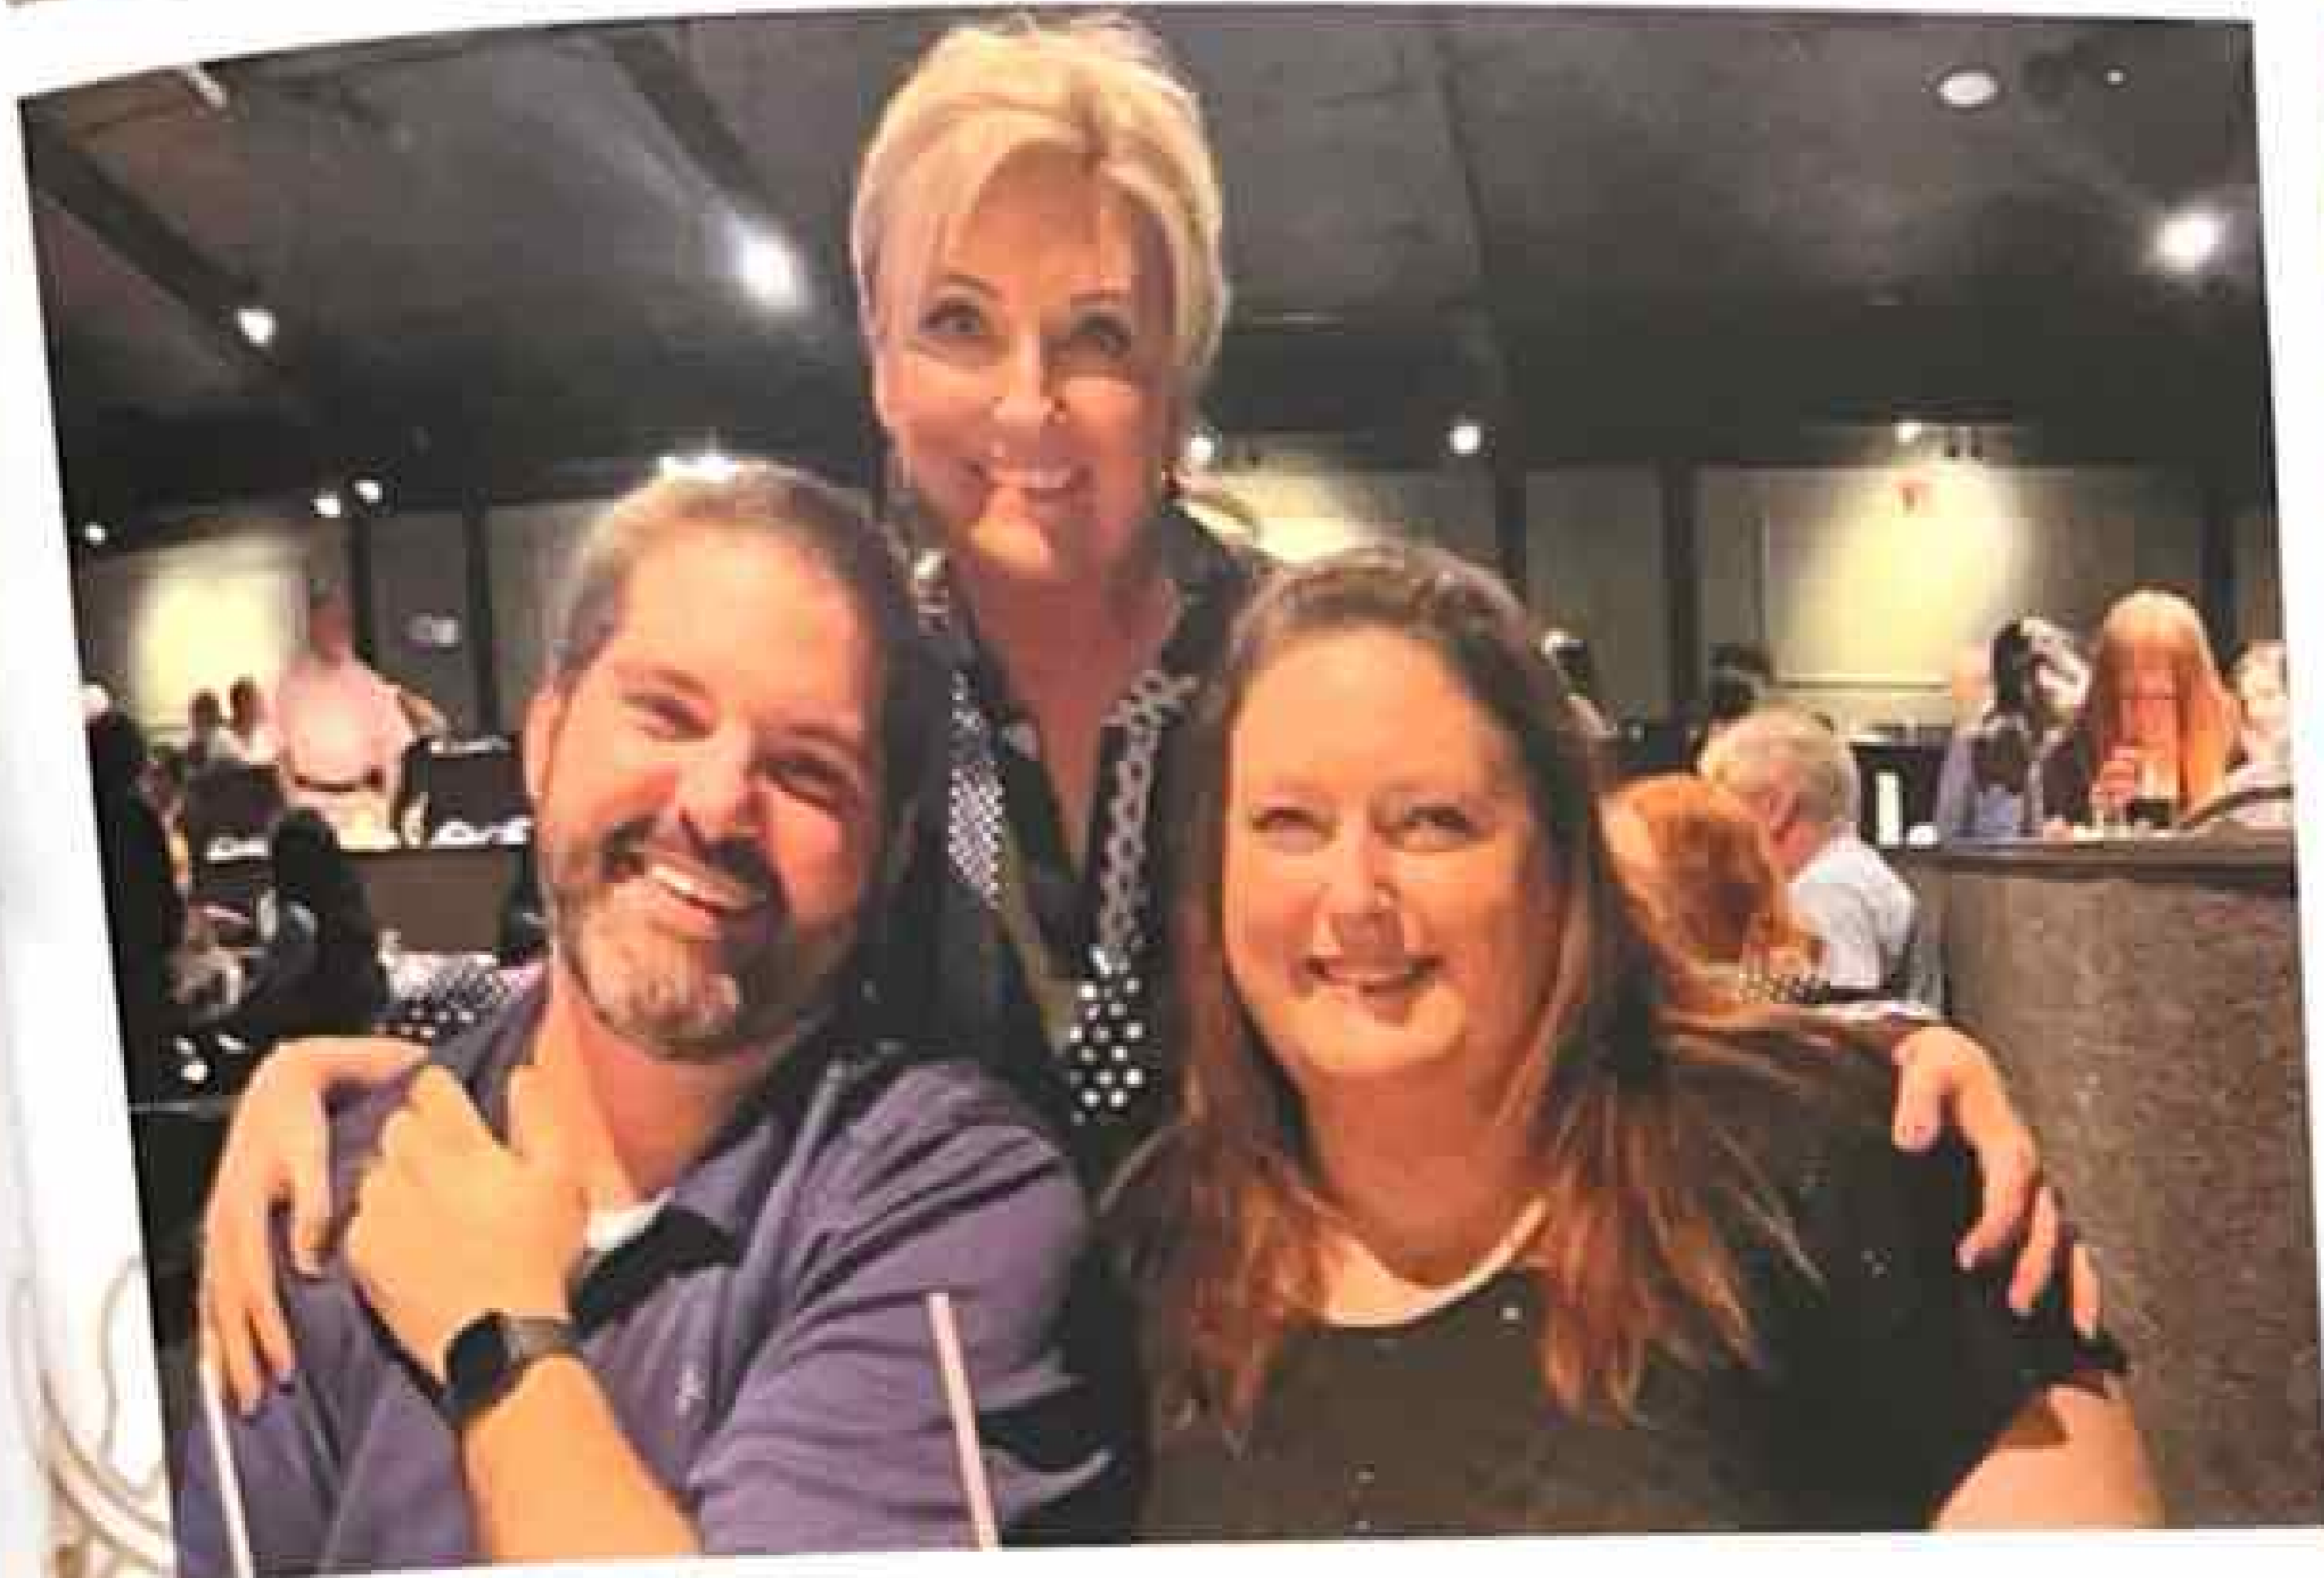

Adam and Caitlyn have known from the beginning that adoption would be part of their story! Adoption has been a blessing to their family already, so there wasn't a question when they began to discuss adoption as an option. For the first couple of years of their marriage, Adam and Caitlyn tried to conceive naturally with no success. After lots of prayer, it became obvious that God had a different plan for them - adoption was their answer! Their niece, Lizzie, is adopted and with the help of her parents, Christopher and Jessica, and gaining some more knowledge about the adoption process, they began their adoption journey in November of 2024. We would be honored if you chose us to take this journey with you!

Our Promise to You

If we are given the honor of being chosen as adoptive parents for your child, we promise to raise them in a home filled with unconditional love, unwavering faith, and strong family values.

We promise to nurture their gifts, encourage their dreams, and guide them with patience and grace. We promise to raise them in the Christian faith, teaching them about God's love and the hope we have in Him. We will surround them with a community that will support and uplift them—grandparents, cousins, friends, and a church family who are all ready to welcome them with open arms.

We will be present in every moment—big and small. We'll celebrate their first steps, cheer at soccer games, pray together at bedtime, and walk alongside them through life's joys and challenges. We'll raise them to be kind, confident, and compassionate—to know who they are and whose they are.

Most of all, we promise to love your child unconditionally. We recognize the courage and selfless love it takes to consider adoption, and we hold that with the deepest humility. This is our promise to you—today and always.
