

CHRISTINE

HELLO!

I'm Christine and I want to thank you for taking the time to learn more about me. As a single woman, I am excited to start my family through adoption. I cannot wait to be a mother! I hope through these pages you will see what your child's life will look like in my family. I appreciate you choosing adoption and cannot wait to hear from you. Wishing you all the best.

ABOUT ME

I grew up in a big, loving family where life was always busy in the best way. We took vacations to Disneyworld, the beach and visits to my grandparents. We also spent every holiday together making memories. I played soccer, took art classes and lived all over the US, which helped me make friends everywhere I went.

These days, I've settled down in Tennessee, and it feels like home. I work as a manager of a small team of admins on a real estate team. I still love finding ways to be creative and saying yes to new adventures whenever I can.

All of that makes me excited to raise a child with the same mix of love, fun, and exploration that shaped my own life. I want them to grow up with traditions to look forward to, places to explore, and a family that shows up for every moment, big or small.

SOME OF MY FAVORITES

TV SHOWS

Real Housewives (and most Bravo shows), Outlander

HOBBIES & INTERESTS

I love traveling the world, reading and collecting minerals/crystals

VACATION

Budapest has been the city I've loved the most

HOLIDAYS

I like dressing up for Halloween and I love Christmas family time

HOW OTHERS SEE ME

"Christine is a very independent, motivated, kind person. I have personally spent time with Christine and her parents and admire the bonds and interactions between them."

-Christy, friend of 19 years

"Christine is a caring, compassionate, and empathetic person with a great sense of responsibility. She's smart, organized and a good communicator."

-Becky, boss for 7 years

"She is committed to ensuring her friends are taken care of. She is one that if I needed anything, she would be there no matter what."

-Jillian, friend of 20 years

MY HOME

I live in a city with plenty of places to explore and enjoy. There are libraries, museums, playgrounds and a zoo, which makes it easy to spend time learning, playing, and creating special memories. I appreciate having so many family-friendly spaces nearby.

My home is in a family-oriented neighborhood at the end of a quiet street. One of my favorite things about living here is the woodland animals that wander through my yard, bringing a little bit of nature right up to my windows. It's a peaceful, cozy place that feels perfect for raising a child.

MEET HARVEY!

I grew up in a family where pets were considered to be very special, and that's no different with Harvey. He's affectionate, a little goofy, and happiest when he's curled up next to me or glued to the window watching birds and squirrels. I love the idea of a child growing up with him around, because he brings so much comfort, fun and gentle companionship to everyday life.

MY FAMILY

I am the second oldest of five children, and have three brothers and one sister. My parents are both still married and live close by, along with my youngest brother. Perfect for helping me out! My other siblings aren't local, but we see each other as often as we can and love playing Mario Kart over Zoom calls.

FUN AND ADVENTURES

In my free time, I really enjoy spending time with my friends and family. I also love traveling the world, seeing architecture, trying new foods and learning about different cultures.

MY PROMISE TO YOU

Should you choose me, I promise to provide a safe, nurturing and loving environment.

I promise that your child will be welcomed into a large,
warm and silly extended family.

I promise that we will bake cookies with Nana, read lots of books and befriend all of the cats.

I promise to always be open about this adoption journey.
