

Sarah AND Taylor

Hello, we are

Sarah & Taylor

We can only imagine the weight of the decisions you are carrying right now. It takes an incredible amount of courage, selflessness, and profound love to explore this path, and we are deeply humbled that you are taking the time to read our profile.

When we turn the keys to our front door, our immediate wish is to fill our house with warmth and the laughter of children. Due to infertility, our journey shows us that family isn't built through biological children but given through blessings.

Your bravery allows us to build our family. We enjoy a life together filled with love, commitment, and adventure. We are so excited to share our life with our child. We can't wait to become parents.

About Us

We're a joyful, family-centered couple who met through mutual friends. From the moment we met, we felt an undeniable connection. Together we've learned so much about ourselves, each other, and shared dreams. For years we've dreamed of growing our family, but infertility had a different plan. We know the adoption journey was placed on our hearts for a reason. We are lucky to have incredible family support behind our choice to adopt. They are eager to meet the newest member of the family.

About Sarah

Sarah is a teacher with a heart for children, creativity, and connection. She brings warmth, joy, and encouragement wherever she goes, making others feel loved and valued. She loves staying active, exploring the outdoors, and traveling. Sarah hopes to be a stay-at-home mom while continuing to run their nonprofit, allowing her to be present for the little moments, create meaningful traditions, and give her child opportunities to experience life together. Her nurturing heart will make her a loving and devoted mother.

Taylor's Words

Sarah is truly one of a kind, with strengths that are impossible to miss.

She wears her heart on her sleeve and is deeply in tune with the needs of others, always offering comfort and a listening ear. Her love for life, family, and children is boundless. Watching the joy and patience she brings to every child makes it clear what an extraordinary mother she will be.

About Taylor

Taylor has a heart for service and is always looking for ways to invest in others. He serves on local boards and the city council, where he mentors and supports initiatives that strengthen his community. By profession, he is a software engineer, but his passion for helping others extends far beyond his career. In his free time, he enjoys photography, hands-on projects, and adventure. Taylor is steady, curious, and deeply committed to building meaningful relationships and making a positive impact.

Sarah's Words

Taylor has a playful spirit and genuine heart! He can connect with people and make them feel seen. What I love most is when he acts like a kid with our nieces and littles in our family - from them braiding his beard to becoming their human jungle gym. Taylor is going to make an amazing father, and I'm so excited to raise our family together with him.

OUR HOME

We have spent years building not just a home, but a life rooted in a fiercely supportive, tight-knit town. We are deeply involved in our community and are surrounded by a vibrant circle of friends, neighbors, and family who are all eagerly waiting to welcome a newborn with open arms. We enjoy local events, outdoor adventures, and serving families through our nonprofit. We look forward to raising our child in a home with meaningful traditions, a sense of belonging, and filled with unconditional love.

Waiting

With Love

As we wait for the day we meet our child, we are preparing the nursery with love, hope, and excitement for our little one. It's a cozy space where our child can learn, dream, create, and discover the world around them. We dream of hearing laughter, reading bedtime stories, and creating cherished memories. We can't wait to encourage their unique interests and help them grow kind, courageous, generous, and confident.

OUR TRADITIONS

Family, friends, and community are the heart of our lives. We are fortunate to live close to our families! We have parents who look forward to becoming grandparents and siblings who can't wait to be aunts and uncles. Our child will be surrounded by a village of unconditional love, encouragement, and unwavering support. Throughout the year, we are always getting together for shared meals, celebrating holidays, and family vacations. We look forward to creating new memories with our child.

Before You Go!

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about us. We hope to have the chance to learn more about you, too, and we wish you peace as you make the decision that is best for you and your family.

If you choose us, we promise a life filled with unconditional love, stability, and a community that will celebrate your child and their story every single day. We will always honor you and the courageous, selfless choice you made to bring us together.
